sponsored the series of lectures on American national security after the Cold War which are contained in this volume The lectures take four different yet complementary perspectives Professor Ronald Steel reminds us of the intellectual revolution embodied in the act that moved America from the concept of defense to one of national security and relates this concept to our attempts to define post Cold War national security interests Dr Lawrence Korb reviews the evolution in our national security establishment since the 1947 act Dr Morton Halperin's focus is the continuing tension between secrecy in the name of national security and the openness required in a democratic society with a commentary on continuing threats to civil liberties In the concluding essay Ambassador Robert Ellsworth surveys the key strategic challenges facing the United States as we enter the 21st century
