Western Primitivism:

The Neo-primitivist Turn Victor Li, 2006-01-01 In recent years the concept of the primitive has been the subject of strong criticism it has been examined unpacked and shown to signify little more than a construction or projection necessary for establishing the modernity of the West The term primitive continues however to appear in contemporary critical and cultural discourse begging the question Why does primitivism keep reappearing even after it has been uncovered as a modern myth In The Neo primitivist Turn Victor Li argues that this contentious term was never completely banished and that it has in fact reappeared under new theoretical guises An idealized conception of the primitive he contends has come to function as the ultimate sign of alterity Li focuses on the works of theorists like Jean Baudrillard Jean Fran ois Lyotard Marianna Torgovnick Marshall Sahlins and J rgen Habermas in order to demonstrate that primitivism continues to be a powerful presence even in those works normally regarded as critical of the concept Providing close readings of the ways in which the premodern or primitive is strategically deployed in contemporary critical writings Li s interdisciplinary study is a timely and forceful intervention into current debates on the politics and ethics of otherness the problems of cultural relativism and the vicissitudes of modernity

White Identities Alastair Bonnett, 2018-10-08 White Identities provides a comprehensive overview of this debate drawing together the various strands of recent research into an accessible but challenging introduction The author argues that White Studies as it is presently conceived is an American project reflecting American interpretations of race and history However the book shows that the impact of white identities is international in scope and significance Thus only a thorough historical and international perspective on whiteness can provide a proper introduction to the subject an introduction that has relevance to students worldwide

Body Modification Mike Featherstone, 2000-04-19 This fascinating collection explores the growing range of body modification practices such as piercing tattooing branding cutting and inserting implants which have sprung up recently in the West It asks whether this implies that we are returning to traditional tribal practices of inscribing identities onto bodies on the part of modern primitives or is body modification better understood as purely cosmetic and decorative with body markings merely temporary signs of transferable loyalties

From Primitive to Indigenous James L. Cox, 2016-04-22 The academic study of Indigenous Religions developed historically from missiological and anthropological sources but little analysis has been devoted to this classification within departments of religious studies Evaluating this assumption in the light of case studies drawn from Zimbabwe Alaska and shamanic traditions and in view of current debates over primitivism James Cox mounts a defence for the scholarly use of the category Indigenous Religions

World Of Art Series Primitivism And Modern Art Colin Rhodes, 1995-01-03 A fascination with the primitive lies at the heart of some of the most influential developments in Western art produced between 1890 and 1950 a time that witnessed both the heroic period of modern art and the apogee and decline of the West s colonial power Many groups have a times been labeled as primitive including the so called tribal peoples from Africa Oceania and North America but also prehistoric cultures European peasants the insane and children Through the lens of their own society many modern artists looked both to the art and to the world view of the primitive as a means of challenging established beliefs but the primitive to which they turned was as varied as the movements in modern art of which they were a part Colin Rhodes breaks new ground drawing on a wide and diverse range of material from high art to popular entertainment from Darwin to Freud the critical overview he presents supersedes all previous studies on the subject 179 illus 28 in color Western American Literature ,2013 Picturing the New Negro Caroline Goesser,2007 Chronicles the vibrant partnership between literary and visual African American artists that resulted in the image of the New Negro In the process demonstrates that commercial illustration represents the largest and in some cases most progressive body of visual art associated with the Harlem Renaissance The Western Review Ray Benedict West,1952 Dreaming with Open Eyes Michael Tucker,1992 Shamanic spirit in 20th century Native American art and culture Indian-made Erika Marie Bsumek,2008 In works of silver and wool the Navajos have established a unique brand of American craft And when their artisans were integrated into the American economy during the late nineteenth century they became part of a complex cultural and economic framework in which their handmade crafts conveyed meanings beyond simple adornment Bsumek unravels the layers of meaning that surround the branding of Indian made When Navajo artisans produced their goods collaborating traders tourist industry personnel and even ethnologists created a vision of Navajo culture that had little to do with Navajos themselves And as Anglos consumed Navajo crafts they also consumed the romantic notion of Navajos as primitives perpetuated by the marketplace These processes of production and consumption reinforced each other creating a symbiotic relationship and influencing both mutual Anglo Navajo perceptions and the ways in which Navajos participated in the modern marketplace Ultimately Bsumek shows that the sale of Indian made goods cannot be explained solely through supply and demand It must also reckon with the multiple images and narratives that grew up around the goods themselves integrating consumer culture tourism and history to open new perspectives on our understanding of American Indian material culture BOOK JACKET □□□□□□□□ Valerie C.
