David J. Hogan, 2015-05-07 From the inception of the science fiction film writers directors producers and actors have understood that the genre lends itself to a level of social commentary not available in other formats Viewers find it easier to accept explorations of such issues as domestic violence war xenophobia faith identity racism and other difficult topics when the protagonists exist in future times or other worlds that are only vaguely similar to our own The 22 original essays in this collection examine how the issues in particular science fiction films from 1930's High Treason to 1999's The Iron Giant reflect and comment on the prevailing issues of their time The 16 writers including such noted contributors as Ted Okuda Gary Don Rhodes Bryan Senn John Soister and Ken Weiss provide insight on how the genre's wistful daydreaming forthcoming wonders and nightmarish scenarios are often grounded in the grimmer realities of the human condition Films covered include It Came from Outer Space Godzilla The 27th Day Alien and Starship Troopers plus television's The Adventures of Superman the Flash Gordon serials and vintage space cartoons by Fleischer Keep Watching the Skies!
