The Austrian Example Kurt Waldheim, 1973 A Cold War over Austria Gerald Stourzh, Wolfgang Mueller, 2018-11-12
After World War II Austria was occupied by Soviet American British and French forces This study provides the history of the treaty that was negotiated in order to end this occupation In the Moscow Declaration of 1943 the United States Great Britain and the Soviet Union had declared that Austria should be liberated from Nazi rule and reconstructed as an independent state After the war however this goal was soon overshadowed by security and power considerations and then by the Cold War While the West strove to safeguard Austria's independence from communist expansion the USSR refused to finalize a treaty and to withdraw from its zone in the eastern part of the country In the end it took until 1955 to come to an agreement and receive Soviet consent for a treaty An important Soviet precondition for agreeing to withdraw was Austria becoming a permanently neutral country The roots of Austria's neutrality as traced in this volume were not only linked to Soviet but also to Austrian considerations Based on US Soviet British French German Swiss and Austrian documents the book analyzes the risks pitfalls and blockades that had to be avoided and overcome before Austria could finally regain its independence and be reconstructed
