First Base: 3000 Baseball Quiz Questions to Test Your Knowledge of Sports History Roger Wilthrop,2021-08-16 Historians and archivists play a very important role in the modern world they help us stay in touch with the past so that we can learn lessons from both the good and the bad Sports historians are even more important in addition to the functions above they also act like bards in a sense creating a mythology around the greatest players of all time so that we can eulogize them and remember them many years after their mortal bones have crumbled into dust The history of baseball is long and glorious In this book I invite you to come and explore baseball history with me as we look at thousands of sports legends who carried entire franchises on their broad shoulders for decades Baseball fans boast a wealth of knowledge about the statistics of every major player in the sport and the depth of this knowledge puts the memory of the fans of any other sport to shame It is truly mind boggling to see how quickly a dedicated baseball fan can recall batting averages dates of major games player dynasties coach histories and so much more As a testament to the depth of the baseball fandom we can see the unflagging attendance at games the audience has showed sustained staying power or growth for more than 80 percent of the years in the previous century and a half these are numbers that no other sport in the history of the world has ever shown except for perhaps soccer The market for collectibles both vintage trading cards and merchandise of all kinds is as large and thriving as it has ever been The future of baseball is indeed bright This book celebrates the legacy of thousands of sluggers pitchers and catchers who collectively acted as superheroes to a whole generation of millions of children in an era before superheroes could fly and do magic their skills did the talking for them They were and are great role models for our youth given that they displayed the positive impact of hard work on their lives every time they stepped out on the field to lay it all on the line
