

The Asphalt Jungle

John Huston

The Asphalt Jungle:

The Asphalt Jungle William Riley Burnett, 1968 The Asphalt Jungle John Huston, 1949 The Asphalt Jungle Ben Maddow, John Huston, 1980 Dore Schary then head of production at Metro Goldwyn Mayer bought The Asphalt Jungle while it was still in manuscript in an effort to match the success Warner Brothers had enjoyed with Burnett's Little Caesar and High Sierra. The choice of Ben Maddow and John Huston as screenwriters assured the artistic success of the screenplay for few writer-directors could have matched Huston's ability to develop these characters cinematically. It was a case of strength building upon strength. Burnett's fully developed characters were transformed by Maddow and Huston into a screenplay of impressive immediacy. Indeed, the portrayal of the criminals in splendid performances from Louis Calhern, Sam Jaffe, Sterling Hayden, James Whitmore, and Jean Hagen led Bosley Crowther to lament, "If only it all weren't so corrupt. But the characters of Burnett, Maddow, and Huston don't permit us to romanticize about them or their activities. We share their professional pride in a robbery well planned and are silent accomplices to their mutual treachery." The Asphalt Jungle was nominated for best screenplay by the Motion Picture Academy and for best written American drama by the Writers Guild. John Huston received a nomination for best director by the Academy. As a novel, The Asphalt Jungle has been translated into twelve languages.

L.A. Noir William Hare, 2008-02-07 Los Angeles is an ideal city for film noir for both economic and aesthetic reasons. The largest metropolitan area in the country, home to an ever-changing population of the disillusioned and in close proximity to city mountains, ocean, and desert, the City of Angels became a center of American film noir. This detailed discussion of nine films explores such topics as why certain settings are appropriate for film noir, why L.A. has been a favorite of authors such as Raymond Chandler, and relevant political developments in the area. The films are also examined in terms of story content as well as how they developed in the project stage. Utilizing a number of quotes from interviews, the work examines actors, directors, and others involved with the films, touching on their careers and details of their time in L.A. The major films covered are The Big Sleep, Criss Cross, D.O.A., In a Lonely Place, The Blue Gardenia, Kiss Me Deadly, The Killing, Chinatown, and L.A. Confidential.

John Huston as Adaptor Douglas McFarland, Wesley King, 2017-01-27 Argues that understanding Huston's film adaptations of literary works is essential to understanding his oeuvre as a filmmaker. John Huston as Adaptor makes the case that adaptation is the salient element in Huston's identity as a filmmaker and that his early and deep attraction to the experience of reading informed his approach to film adaptation. Thirty-four of Huston's thirty-seven films were adaptations of literary texts, and they stand as serious interpretations of literary works that could only be made by an astute reader of literature. Indeed, Huston asserted that a film director should be above all else a reader, and that reading itself should be the intellectual and emotional basis for filmmaking. The seventeen essays in this volume not only address Huston as an adaptor but also offer an approach to adaptation studies that has been largely overlooked. How an adaptor reads the works to which he is drawn and how his literary interpretations can be brought to the screen without relegating film to a subservient role are some of the issues addressed by the contributors An introductory chapter identifies Huston as the quintessential Hollywood adaptor and argues that his skill at adaptation is the mark of his authorial signature The chapters that follow focus on fifteen of Huston s most important films including The Maltese Falcon 1941 The Treasure of the Sierra Madre 1948 The African Queen 1951 The Night of the Iguana 1964 Under the Volcano 1984 and The Dead 1987 and are divided into three areas aesthetics and textuality history and social context and theory and psychoanalysis By offering a more comprehensive account of the centrality of adaptation to Huston s films John Huston as Adaptor offers a greater understanding of Huston as a filmmaker

The Big Tomorrow Lary May, 2000-06-21 In this daring reexamination of the connections between national politics and Hollywood movies Lary May offers a fresh interpretation of American culture from the New Deal through the Cold War one in which a populist egalitarian ethos found itself eventually supplanted by a far different view of the nation One of the best books ever written about the movies Tom Ryan The Age The most exhilarating work of revisionist film history since Pauline Kael s Citizen Kane May s take on what movies once were energizing as opposed to enervating and hence can become again is enough to get you believing in them again as one of the regenerative forces America so sorely needs Jay Carr Boston Globe A startling revisionist history of Hollywood s impact on politics and American culture A convincing and important addition to American cultural criticism Publishers Weekly A controversial overview of 30 years of American film history must reading for any serious student of the subject Choice A provocative social history of Hollywood s influence in American life from the 1930s to the 1950s May argues persuasively that movies in the period offered a good deal of tough criticism of economic and social conditions in U S society May challenges us to engage in some serious rethinking about Hollywood s impact on American society in the middle of the
