

A promotional artwork for the game 'Dune: Awakening'. The scene is set in a vast, golden desert under a clear blue sky. In the foreground, three figures are seen from behind, looking out over the landscape. The central figure is a woman in dark, intricately detailed armor. To her left is a man in a reddish-brown robe, and to her right is a smaller figure in dark, form-fitting clothing. In the mid-ground, a large, ornate, golden structure resembling a sandworm's head or a massive sandcastle rises from the dunes. The background features rolling sand dunes, a large, pale, spherical moon or planet in the sky, and a smaller, blue-tinted celestial body. The overall atmosphere is one of epic scale and mystery.

The Awakening:

The Awakening Kay Carey, 1980 In Cliffs Notes on The Awakening you experience one woman's desire to find and live fully within her true self Her devotion to that purpose causes friction with her friends and family and also conflicts with the dominant values of her time Summaries and commentaries will help you understand events of the novel as well as their meaning You'll also gain insight into the life and background of the author Kate Chopin Awakening Kate Chopin, 2023-08-01 The Awakening is set in New Orleans and the Southern Louisiana coast at the end of the nineteenth century This landmark novel was one of the earliest works of feminism and a precursor to American modernism and the great southern novelists such as William Faulkner Flannery O'Connor Eudora Welty and Tennessee Williams Edna Pontellier struggles to reconcile her views of femininity and motherhood with the prevailing social attitudes of the turn of the century South An important and powerful look into the beginnings of modern feminism literature The Awakening Kate Chopin, 2018-03-11 The Awakening Kate Chopin, 2012-02-29 First published in 1899 this controversial novel of a New Orleans wife's search for love outside a stifling marriage shocked readers Today it remains a first-rate narrative with superb characterization New introductory note The Awakening Kate Chopin, Nancy A. Walker, 2000 Presents the complete text of The Awakening by nineteenth-century American novelist Kate Chopin and contains biographical historical and cultural contexts as well as critical essays that analyze her work The Awakening (Annotated) Kate Chopin, 2019-08-03 The Awakening originally titled A Solitary Soul is a novel Kate Chopin first published in 1899 Set in New Orleans and on the Louisiana Gulf coast at the end of the 19th century the plot centers on Edna Buddhism and Medicine C. Pierce Salguero, 2017-09-26 From its earliest days Buddhism has been closely intertwined with medicine Buddhism and Medicine is a singular collection showcasing the generative relationship and mutual influence between these fields across premodern Asia The anthology combines dozens of English language translations of premodern Buddhist texts with contextualizing introductions by leading international scholars in Buddhist studies the history of medicine and a range of other fields These sources explore in detail medical topics ranging from the development of fetal anatomy in the womb to nursing hospice dietary regimen magical powers visualization and other healing knowledge Works translated here include meditation guides popular narratives ritual manuals spells texts monastic disciplinary codes recipe inscriptions philosophical treatises poetry works by physicians and other genres All together these selections and their introductions provide a comprehensive overview of Buddhist healing throughout Asia They also demonstrate the central place of healing in Buddhist practice and in the daily life of the premodern world This anthology is a companion volume to Buddhism and Medicine An Anthology of Modern and Contemporary Sources Columbia 2019 Contemplative Literature Louis Komjathy, 2015-08-31 An anthology of primary texts on meditation and contemplative prayer from a wide range of religious traditions This is the first theoretically informed and historically accurate comparative anthology of primary texts on meditation and contemplative prayer Written by international experts on the respective texts and corresponding traditions. Contemplative Literature provides introductions to and primary sources on contemplative practice from various religious traditions. The contributors explore classical Daoist apophatic meditation, Quaker silent prayer, Jewish Kabbalah, Southern Buddhist meditation, Sufi contemplation, Eastern Orthodox prayer, Pure Land Buddhist visualization, Hindu classical Yoga, Dominican Catholic prayer, Daoist internal alchemy, and modern therapeutic meditation. Each introduction to a contemplative text discusses its historical context, the associated religious tradition and literature, the method of contemplative practice, and the text's legacy and influence. Volume editor Louis Komjathy opens the work with a thoughtful consideration of interpretive issues in the emerging interdisciplinary field of contemplative studies. Readers will gain not only a nuanced understanding of important works of contemplative literature but also resources for understanding contemplative practice and contemplative experience from a comparative and cross-cultural perspective. We have not seen anything this bold and this global since Friedrich Heiler wrote his classic study on the typology of prayer over eighty years ago. Komjathy and his essayists have vastly expanded the scope, depth, and sophistication of this project. In the process, they have struggled with all of the critical questions around religious pluralism, tradition, and religious authority, and have emboldened the comparative project itself. Contemplation and comparison turn out to go very well together. Jeffrey J. Kripal, author of Comparing Religions: Coming to Terms, Teachers and scholars, undergraduate and graduate students, and general readers interested in contemplative practice will cherish a book like this. I'm happy that Louis Komjathy has done this great work. It will undoubtedly be hailed as a milestone. Ruben L. F. Habito, author of Healing Breath: Zen for Christians and Buddhists in a Wounded World. Mindfully Facing Disease and Death, Analayo, 2016-10-03. Disease and death are undeniably integral parts of human life. Yet when they manifest, we are easily caught unprepared. To prepare for these, we need to learn how to skilfully face illness and passing away. A source of practical wisdom can be found in the early discourses that record the teachings given by the Buddha and his disciples. The chief aim of this book is to provide a collection of passages taken from the Buddha's early discourses that provide guidance for facing disease and death. The Awakening: and Selected Short Stories (Annotated), Kate Chopin, 2018-01-21. The Awakening (1899) appears in this collection of short stories. Upon publication, the story was highly praised, but the public was outraged by the content, and only one edition was printed. The Awakening was rediscovered in the 1960s when Chopin was praised for raising feminist questions. The story follows the personal discovery of a married woman of the things she did not even realize she was missing.

The Awakening, Kate Chopin, 2014-09-18. Kate Chopin's second and final novel challenged the social norms of the late nineteenth century, causing a censorious stir among critics upon its publication. The Awakening is now regarded as a classic of naturalist literature and a landmark work of early feminism. Bulletin, 1919. New Directions in American Religious History, Harry S. Stout, D. G. Hart, 1998-01-01. The eighteen essays collected in this book had their origin in a conference of the same title held at the Wingspread Conference Center in October of 1993.
