The Last Generation Prose Poetry:

The Last Generation Cherríe Moraga, 1993-01 This highly politicized and intensely personal work bravely and eloquently argues for a reconceptualization of gender sexuality race art nationalism and the politics of survival Chicano Drama Jorge A. Huerta, 2000-11-16 This book first published in 2000 was the first since Jorge Huerta's earlier study Chicano Theater Themes and Forms to explore the diversity and energy of Chicano theatre Huerta takes as his starting point 1979 the year Luis Valdez's play Zoot Suit was produced on Broadway Huerta looks at plays by and about Chicana and Chicanos as they explore through performance the community and its identity caught between the United States and Mexico Through informative biographies of each playwright and analyses of their plays Huerta offers an accessible introduction to this important aspect of American theatre and culture Overall Huerta establishes a pattern of theatrical activity that is closely linked with both Western European traditions of realism and an indigenous philosophy seen in contemporary Chicano culture The book contains photographs from key productions and will be invaluable to students scholars and general theatregoers

Death beyond Disavowal Grace Kyungwon Hong, 2015-10-01 Death beyond Disavowal utilizes difference as theorized by women of color feminists to analyze works of cultural production by people of color as expressing a powerful antidote to the erasures of contemporary neoliberalism According to Grace Kyungwon Hong neoliberalism is first and foremost a structure of disavowal enacted as a reaction to the successes of the movements for decolonization desegregation and liberation of the post World War II era It emphasizes the selective and uneven affirmation and incorporation of subjects and ideas that were formerly categorically marginalized particularly through invitation into reproductive respectability It does so in order to suggest that racial gendered and sexualized violence and inequity are conditions of the past rather than the foundations of contemporary neoliberalism's exacerbation of premature death Neoliberal ideologies hold out the promise of protection from premature death in exchange for complicity with this pretense In Audre Lorde's Sister Outsider Cherríe Moraga's The Last Generation and Waiting in the Wings Oscar Zeta Acosta's The Revolt of the Cockroach People Ana Castillo's So Far from God Gayl Jones's Corregidora Isaac Julien's Looking for Langston Inge Blackman's B D Women Rodney Evans's Brother to Brother and the work of the late Barbara Christian Death beyond Disavowal finds the memories of death and precarity that neoliberal ideologies attempt to erase Hong posits cultural production as a compelling rejoinder to neoliberalism's violences She situates women of color feminism often dismissed as narrow or limited in its effect as a potent diagnosis of and alternative to such violences And she argues for the importance of women of color feminism to any critical engagement with contemporary neoliberalism Transnational Chicana Perspectives on Ana Castillo Bernadine Hernández, Karen Roybal, 2021-06-15 For more than forty years Chicana author Ana Castillo has produced novels poems and critical essays that forge connections between generations challenge borders around race gender and sexuality and critically engage transnational issues of space identity and belonging Her contributions to Latinx cultural production and to Chicana feminist thought have transcended and contributed to feminist praxis ethnic literature and border studies throughout the Americas Transnational Chicana Perspectives on Ana Castillo is the first edited collection that focuses on Castillo's oeuvre which directly confronts what happens in response to cultural displacement mixing and border crossing Divided into five sections this collection thinks about Castillo's poetics language and form as well as thematic issues such as borders immigration gender sexuality and transnational feminism From her first political poetry Otro Canto published in 1977 to her mainstream novels such as The Mixquiahuala Letters So Far From God and The Guardians this collection aims to unravel how Castillo's writing impacts people of color around the globe and works in solidarity with other third world feminisms

Handbook of Universal Literature from the Best and Latest Authorities Anne Charlotte Lynch Botta, 1871 The Roman Poets of the Augustan Age: Virgil William Young Sellar, 1877 Hand-book of Universal Literature Anne Charlotte Lynch Botta, 1875 Death in Jewish Life Stefan C. Reif, Andreas Lehnardt, Avriël Bar-Levav, 2014-08-27 Jewish customs and traditions about death burial and mourning are numerous diverse and intriguing They are considered by many to have a respectable pedigree that goes back to the earliest rabbinic period In order to examine the accurate historical origins of many of them an international conference was held at Tel Aviv University in 2010 and experts dealt with many aspects of the topic This volume includes most of the papers given then as well as a few added later What emerges are a wealth of fresh material and perspectives as well as the realization that the high Middle Ages saw a set of exceptional innovations some of which later became central to traditional Judaism while others were gradually abandoned Were these innovations influenced by Christian practice Which prayers and poems reflect these innovations What do the sources tell us about changing attitudes to death and life after death Are tombstones an important guide to historical developments Answers to these questions are to be found in this unusual illuminating and readable collection of essays that have been well documented carefully edited and well indexed

The Royal Gallery of Poetry and Art Nathan David Thompson, 1886 Filson Club Publications, 1921 The Academy, 1894 The Athenaeum James Silk Buckingham, John Sterling, Frederick Denison Maurice, Henry Stebbing, Charles Wentworth Dilke, Thomas Kibble Hervey, William Hepworth Dixon, Norman Maccoll, Vernon Horace Rendall, John Middleton Murry, 1910 The Encyclopaedia Britannica, 1929 Russian poetry and criticism in Paris from 1920 to 1940 Aleksey Gibson, 1990 The Encyclopædia Britannica James Louis Garvin, Franklin Henry Hooper, Warren Earle Cox, 1929 The Bible Now Richard Elliott Friedman, Shawna Dolansky, 2011-10-01 For millennia people have used the Bible as a touchstone on important social and political questions and rightly so But many use the Bible simply as a weapon to wield against opponents in a variety of debates without knowing what the Bible actually says about the issue in question In The Bible Now two respected biblical scholars Richard Elliott Friedman and Shawna Dolansky tell us carefully what the Hebrew Bible says or does not say about a wide range of issues including homosexuality abortion women's status capital punishment and the environment In fascinating passages that shed new light on some of today's most passionate disputes the authors reveal how the Bible is frequently misunderstood misquoted mistranslated and misused For instance those who quote the Bible in condemning homosexuality often cite the story of Sodom and those who favor homosexuality point to David's lament over the death of Jonathan But as the authors show neither passage is clearly about homosexuality and these texts do not offer solid footing on which to make an argument Readers learn that female homosexuality is not prohibited only male homosexuality And on the subject of abortion the Bible is practically silent with one extraordinary exception The Bible has inspired people to do great good but has also been used by people to do great harm so it is vitally important for us to pay attention to it and to get it right The Bible Now shows us how we can and cannot use this ancient source of wisdom to address our most current and pressing issues
