The Sea Watch:

The New Internationalists Sue Clayton, 2020-12-29 An account of the mobilization of thousands of volunteers who rescued supported and welcomed refugees during the recent European refugee crisis In The New Internationalists Sue Clayton tells the story of the largest civic mobilization since the Second World War when volunteers many young and untrained took on unimaginable responsibilities and saved thousands of lives During the European refugee crisis of 2015-2020 they witnessed first hand the catastrophic failure of established NGOs and the indifference and frequently the open hostility of the EU and national governments Many faced state hostility themselves Their accounts show how activist volunteers have shaped today's European humanitarian agenda and provide a powerful critique of failures of current policy With The New Internationalists Clayton offers a contemporary history and critical contextualization of this powerful new force Mapping key flashpoint locations and curating unique first hand testimonies she explores how during the crisis when almost two million people reached Europe by deadly sea crossings more than 100 000 citizens came together in new grassroots social formations to rescue support and welcome them She provides a unique and multifaceted account based on evidence and testimonies and situates it within current debates on humanitarianism and contemporary social and solidarity movements The Times and Temporalities of International Human Rights Law Kathryn McNeilly, Ben Warwick, 2022-02-24 This collection brings together a range of international contributors to stimulate discussions on time and international human rights law a topic that has been given little attention to date The book explores how time and its diverse forms can be understood to operate on and in this area of law how time manifests in the theory and practice of human rights law internationally and how specific areas of human rights can be understood via temporal analyses A range of temporal ideas and their connection to this area of law are investigated These include collective memory ideas of past present and future emergency time the times of environmental change linearity and non linearity multiplicitous time and the connections between time and space or materiality Rather than a purely abstract or theoretical endeavour this dedicated attention to the times and temporalities of international human rights law will assist in better understanding this law its development and its operation in the present What emerges from the collection is a future or more precisely futures for time as a vehicle of analysis for those working within human rights law internationally The Gods in Anger Adrian Cole, 2014-04-01 The grimdark Omaran Saga reaches a stunning conclusion Remarkably fine fantasy Adrian Cole has a magic touch Roger Zelazny Omara is on the brink of war as the terrible forces of Anakhizer gather in the West Against their assembled might Simon Wargallow and a handful of allies journey secretly into the forbidden lands bearing the rod of power They enter the Deepwalks an ancient and terrifying forest where they learn the real nature of the horrors that threaten to engulf Omara At last they must reach the edge of their world where they are forced to confront the ultimate evil Do not miss the entire quartet A Place Among the Fallen Throne of Fools The King of Light and Shadows and The Gods in Anger The Costs and Benefits of Seawatch Europe, 1996 Citizen

Humanitarianism at European Borders Maria Gabrielsen Jumbert, Elisa Pascucci, 2021-06-16 At a time of escalating conflict between states and NGOs engaged in migrant search and rescue operations across the Mediterranean this book explores the emerging trend of citizen led forms of helping others at the borders of Europe In recent years Europe s borders have become new sites of intervention for traditional humanitarian actors and governmental agencies but also increasingly for volunteer and activist initiatives led by ordinary citizens This book sets out to interrogate the shifting relationship between humanitarianism the securitization of border and migration regimes and citizenship Critically examining the do it yourself character of refugee aid practices performed by non professionals coming together to help in informal and spontaneous manners the volume considers the extent to which these new humanitarian practices challenge established conceptualisations of membership belonging and active citizenship Drawing on case studies from countries around Europe including Greece Turkey Italy France and Russia this collection constitutes an innovative and theoretically engaged attempt to bring the field of humanitarian studies into dialogue with studies of grassroots refugee aid and more explicitly with political forms of solidarity with migrants and refugees which fall between aid and activism This book is key reading for advanced students and researchers of humanitarian aid European migration and refugees and citizen led activism The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license
