Whos Irish:

Who's Irish? Gish Jen, 2012-08-29 In this dazzling collection of short stories the award winning author of the acclaimed novels Thank You Mr Nixon and Mona in the Promised Land presents a sparkling gently satiric look at the American Dream and its fallout on those who pursue it The New York Times The stories in Who's Irish show us the children of immigrants looking wonderingly at their parents efforts to assimilate while the older generation asks how so much selfless hard work on their part can have yielded them offspring who'd sooner drop out of life than succeed at it With dazzling wit and compassion Gish Jen looks at ambition and compromise at century's end and finds that much of the action is as familiar and as strange as the things we know to be most deeply true about ourselves Asian American Short Story Writers Guiyou

Huang, 2003-06-30 Asian America has produced numerous short story writers in the 20th century Some emerged after World War II yet most of these writers have flourished since 1980 The first reference of its kind this volume includes alphabetically arranged entries for 49 nationally and internationally acclaimed Asian American writers of short fiction Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a biography a discussion of major works and themes a survey of the writer's critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies Writers include Frank Chin Sui Sin Far Shirely Geok lin Lim Toshio Mori and Bharati Mukherjee An introductory essay provides a close examination of the Asian American short story and the volume closes with a list of works for further reading Who's Who of Twentieth Century Novelists Tim Woods, 2008-02-21

Taking in novelists from all over the globe from the beginning of the century to the present day this is the most comprehensive survey of the leading lights of twentieth century fiction Superb breadth of coverage and over 800 entries by an international team of contributors ensures that this fascinating and wide ranging work of reference will be invaluable to anyone with an interest in modern fiction Authors included range from Joseph Conrad to Albert Camus and Franz Kafka to Chinua Achebe Who's Who of Twentieth Century Novelists gives a superb insight into the richness and diversity of the twentieth century novel Crosstalk Connie Willis, 2016 Originally published United Kingdom Gallancz 2016 The Face of the Other in Anglo-American Literature

Marija Knežević, 2011-09-22 If we have established that our approach to the phenomena that are other to us is always a matter of semiosis and that even in an attempt to naturalize phenomenology like the one made by Maurice Merleau Ponty who points to the corporeity of consciousness as much as an intentionality of the body it appears that our most negligible movements present our cultural being or habituality of Iris Young Throwing Like a Girl 1990 2005 However many thinkers have claimed for example the novelist D H Lawrence or philosopher Luce Irigaray that we know by touch and intuition The papers collected in this book examine our approach to these issues in an essentially post theory world particularly enquiring if twentieth century theory has left us clear directions of where we are supposed to be looking for new ways of understanding and representing the phenomenological The way the Other exists in the consciousness that as Hegel said always pursues its death becomes especially interesting in the context of the development of Anglo American studies in the post postmodern world which sees the West as a changeable cultural and geographical concept that incorporates a multiplicity of others Yet at the same time a number of contemporary Anglo American writers insists on the prolonged effects of colonialism in the modern world in which outbursts of violence and hatred aimed at the Other prove that the modern world still cannot approach the Other without bigotry Making Sense of Women's Lives , Lauri Umansky,Michele Plott,2000-08-01 Making Sense of Women s Lives presents a wide range of writings about women s lives in the United States Michele Plott and Lauri Umansky have drawn on their experiences as both students and professors to assemble the collection Seeking to provide as full a sampling from a diverse and intellectually vibrant field as one volume permits the editors have also chosen writing that makes an enjoyable read A few of the selections here represent the undisputed classics of the field More of them constitute simply the works drawn from academic and nonacademic sources alike that could make a difference in understanding what it means to be female in America Making Sense of Women s Lives is intended as the primary text in Women s Studies courses With that usage in mind Plott and Umansky have provided brief introductions to each article to help students understand the author s perspectives Thought and discussion questions follow each selection The book contains as well numerous Flash Exercises suggestions for class exercises and activities The editors have used these activities in their courses over the past decade in conjunction with readings in this volume and have found that the full complement of materials coalesces into an intellectually powerful introduction to Women s Studies A Collegiate Press book The Leisure Hour ,1897 The Independent ,1922 The Messenger of the Sacred Heart of Jesus ,1901 The Independent and the Weekly Review ,1922 Live of the Irish Saints, with Special Festivals, and the Commemorations of Holy Persons O'Hanlon John Canon (Irish Catholic priest),1873 Pamphlets and Leaflets for ... Liberal Publication Department (Great Britain),1913 Journal of the Cork Historical and Archaeological Society Cork Historical and Archaeological Society,1895 Includes lists of members Far Eastern Economic Review ,2000 Who's who ,1907 Law Reports Great Britain,1914 The Law Journal Reports ,1914 The Edinburgh Review ,1892 Who's Who in the World, 1912 ,1911 Report Commonwealth Shipping Committee,1914
