

We are all contemplating
Searching
Looking for answers we'll never find
Why am I here?
What is the point?
Ask away, friend
But know that the answers are not out there
You get to choose
What is it you believe in?
Do you see clouds and fairies?
Or do you get a present?
Get centered
Tune in to the sand and sea
The waves and sun
Or out into the wilderness
Where no rock is ever found
I know what I'll do
Get present, everytime
To what is real
What is here, right now

Frozen Words floating around us like thorns of ice the meaning of these phrases must be sought within the mythographic system created by the poet and not interpreted by extrapolation Let us try therefore to decrypt the symbolic and narrative structure of this myth in order to understand its meaning The universe that the poet evokes in his verses is one of the endings of cosmic cycle being therefore one of eschatological origin There are in it cemeteries of words ruined cathedrals cluttered dawns which crumble or broken windows of Heaven in which it rains with sharp shards of moments We will not find anywhere in the perimeter of this universe which seems inspired by the ruins suspended in ether of the Giovanni Battista Piranesi no space of compensation or refuge the ruin and the dispersion being ubiquitous Stefan Borbely

The Complete Poems John Keats, 2003-08-28 Keats's first volume of poems published in 1817 demonstrated both his belief in the consummate power of poetry and his liberal views While he was criticized by many for his politics his immediate circle of friends and family immediately recognized his genius In his short life he proved to be one of the greatest and most original thinkers of the second generation of Romantic poets with such poems as Ode to a Nightingale On First Looking into Chapman's Homer and La Belle Dame sans Merci While his writing is illuminated by his exaltation of the imagination and abounds with sensuous descriptions of nature's beauty it also explores profound philosophical questions John Barnard's acclaimed volume contains all the poems known to have been written by Keats arranged by date of composition The texts are lightly modernized and are complemented by extensive notes a comprehensive introduction an index of classical names selected extracts from Keats's letters and a number of pieces not widely available including his annotations to Milton's Paradise Lost

Word-order Variation in Biblical Hebrew Poetry Nicholas P. Lunn, 2006 This study tackles the neglected subject of word order in biblical Hebrew poetry The fact that the order of clause constituents frequently differs from that found in prose has often been noted but no systematic attempt has been offered by way of explanation Here two separate factors are taken into consideration that of purely poetic variation defamiliarisation and that of pragmatic markedness This work offers a new approach to the poetry of the Old Testament that will aid towards more accurate translation exegesis and discourse analysis of poetic texts
