Tull,2011-09-01 This collection of sermons explores the age old question of why a loving God allows suffering to visit His children Tull encourages readers to ask why in good times as well as in difficult ones to examine God s eternal presence in times of blessed joy as well as during sorrow and care He emphasizes scriptures and anecdotes that illustrate God s comfort and grace during all situations in our lives

Why God Must Do What is Best Justin J. Daeley,2021-09-09 The idea that God understood as the most perfect being must create the best possible world is often underacknowledged by contemporary theologians and philosophers of religion This book clearly demonstrates the rationale for what Justin J Daeley calls Theistic Optimism and interacts with the existing literature in order to highlight its limitations While locating Theistic Optimism in the thought of Gottfried Leibniz Daeley argues that Theistic Optimism is consistent with divine freedom aseity gratitude and our typical modal intuitions By offering plausible solutions to each of the criticisms levelled against Theistic Optimism he also provides a vigorous and original defence against the charge that it deviates from the Christian tradition Engaging with both the Christian tradition and contemporary theologians and philosophers Why God Must Do What is Best positions the idea of Theistic Optimism firmly within the language of contemporary philosophy of religion

Why, God? Burton Z. Cooper,1988-01-01 This book is a sensitive inquiry for anyone who has ever suffered and who wants to think through it theologically It is a compassionate resource for coming to grips with pain suffering and evil

Why God Created the World Ben Stevens,2014-06-20 It is entirely possible that God could have existed without the universe and without humans for all eternity But for some reason He decided to create anyway What inspired Him to start the human story in the first place and how should the answer to that question affect the way we view our lives Few Christians ever stop to seriously consider these deepest of all deep questions Jonathan Edwards explains in his original dissertation God s inherent predisposition to spread out His truth goodness and beauty motivates everything He does So His decision to create our universe was motivated not by a desire or need for us but by a desire to glorify Himself Ben Stevens remarkable new adaptation brings Edwards powerful arguments to life in fresh contemporary language In addition thought provoking questions for discussion or reflection invite readers to engage with the concepts and begin to apply them
