The Second Christianity:

The Second Christianity John Hick, 1994 In contrast to emphasis on personal salvation and religious patriotism of biblical Christianity second Christianity concerns itself with common humanity in relation to a divine Presence and confronts the global problems of our modern world

The Second Christianity John Hick, 2009-08-01 In the contemporary world John Hick argues there are two Christianities In one the Bible is seen as uniquely inspired and authoritative and the Christian worldview is accordingly identified with that of the late first century church The gospel is an offer of personal salvation and often a call to us against them religious patriotism In the other there is an overriding concern for our one world and our common humanity leading to preoccupation with the global problems of nuclear destruction the squandering of precious energy resources the divide between rich and poor in the world and the population explosion The great religious traditions are seen as representing different awarenesses of and different responses to a divine Reality which transcends all our human thoughts and images scriptures and cults Hick's book describes the religious core of this second Christianity the Christianity which is not the tribal religion of one section of humanity over against the rest but rather one way amongst others of living out our common humanity in relation to a divine Presence which grasps us all It has grown out of two earlier works Christianity at the Centre and The Centre of Christianity

Christianity in the Second Century James Carleton Paget, Judith Lieu, 2017-05-15 Christianity in the Second Century seeks to show how academic study on this critical period of Christian development has undergone change over the last thirty years It focuses on contributions from early Christian and ancient Jewish studies and ancient history all of which have contributed to a changing scholarly landscape

Christian Apologetics of the Second Century in Their Relation to Modern Thought Philip Carrington, 1921 Christianity in the Second Century James Carleton Paget, Judith Lieu, 2017 Christianity in the Second Century shows how academic study on this critical period of Christian development has undergone substantial change over the last thirty years The second century is often considered to be a time during which the Christian church moved relentlessly towards forms of institutionalisation and consolidated itself against so called heretics

Found Christianities M. David Litwa, 2022-03-24 M David Litwa tells the stories of the early Christians whose religious identity was either challenged or outright denied In the second century many different groups and sects claimed to be the only Orthodox or authentic version of Christianity and Litwa shows how those groups and figures on the side of developing Christian Orthodoxy often dismissed other versions of Christianity by refusing to call them Christian However the writings and treatises against these groups contain fascinating hints of what they believed and why they called themselves Christian Litwa outlines these different groups and the controversies that surrounded them presenting readers with an overview of the vast tapestry of beliefs that made up second century Christianity By moving beyond notions of gnostic heretical and orthodox Litwa allows these lost Christianities to speak for themselves He also questions the notion of some Christian identities surviving or perishing arguing that all second century Catholic groups look very different to any form of modern Roman Catholicism Litwa shows that countless discourses ideas and practices are continually recycled and adapted throughout time in the building of Christian identities and indeed that the influence of so called lost Christianities can still be felt today Christianity in Iraq Suha Rassam,2005 Christianity was firmly established in Iraq from the earliest times and the Churches of Iraq were to play a major role in the development of Christian theology and spirituality for many centuries By the seventh century evangelization from Iraq had brought Christianity to China Central Asia and India Yet few people in the West are aware of Christianity s vibrant past in this region or of the fact that Christianity has continued to be a significant cultural and religious presence in Iraq right up to the present day The story of the Churches of Iraq their interaction with each other and their varied fortunes under successive Parthian Sassanid Arab Mongol and Ottoman rule is told here with consummate skill Suha Rassam guides the reader seemingly effortlessly through complex issues of doctrinal dispute and ecclesiastical politics She helps us explore the ancient heritage of these Churches and the major contribution they have made to the intellectual development of the region and the wider world Suha Rassam s book comes to fill a large vacuum in the knowledge of those in the West many of whom are still not aware of the fact that from ancient times Christianity was firmly rooted in Iraq and the rest of the territory now seen as the Arab Middle East Archbishop Mikhael Al Jamil Patriarchal Vicar of the Syrian Catholic Church of Antioch to the Holy See and Vicar Apostolic for Europe Dr Suha Rassam has written a work of remarkable scholarship But is is also a vivid portrayal of an extraordinary story of conflict persecution and for fifty years in the twentieth century of hope harmony and prosperity for the Christian community in Iraq It would be a tragedy if that Christian community were now extinguished Cardinal Cormac Murphy O Connor Archbishop of Westminster Gives to the general interested public a comprehensive and informed insight into two thousand years of Christianity in Iraq Dr Erica Hunter School of Oriental and African Studies London University The Organization of Medieval Christianity Summerfield Baldwin,1929 Bibliographical note pages 99 102 History of Christian Doctrine George Park Fisher,1916 Judaism and Christianity Crawford Howell Toy,1890 The Magazine of Christian Literature ,1893 The Christian Life ,1884 The Christian Work and the Evangelist ,1908 The History of Christianity Etienne Ursin Bouzique,1875 The Social Work of Christian Missions Alva Wilmot Taylor,1911 The Hattie Elizabeth Lewis Memorial Essays in Applied Christianity ,1917 Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum,1893 History of religions George Foot Moore,1919 Christian Life and Practice in the Early Church Edmond Déhault de Pressensé,1877 Christian Treasury ,1882
