LeClaire,1985 After the brutal murder of his wife Peter Thorpe escapes to Land s End to mend his shattered life The remote island seems idyllic a picturesque fishing village inhabited by fifty families whose roots stretch back for generations There is no police force according to the islanders there is no crime But several things about the island are strangely disturbing Young once pretty women who seem old beyond their years Children who are too obedient too docile too well behaved Rumors that no one born on the island has ever been allowed to leave Soon Peter will learn the shocking truth about Land s End About the all powerful Council of Elders that administers its harsh laws About the chilling meaning of their oft spoken phrase It s our way And most of all he will learn what horrible things can happen to a stranger from the mainland who dares to fall in love with the wrong woman
