The Self Embodiment Of God:

The Self-embodiment of God Thomas J. J. Altizer, 1977 The Self-Embodiment of God Thomas J. Altizer, 1987-08-14
Traces the interior evolutionary movement of biblical moments and movements of Genesis Exodus Judgement Incarnation and Apocalypse by meditating on speech and silence in the biblical text of the Old Testament or Torah This profoundly moving meditation by a Christian dialectical theologian finds a home in the classical academic literature of Judaism by virtue of the author's emphasis on the search for words to express man's encounter with the living God Jacob Neusner Series Editor in his new preface states that Judaism in the Torah claims to possess these words He considers Altizer's work to be a continuation of the legacy of Abraham Joshua Heschel Originally published by Harper Row in 1977 this edition contains a new introduction by the author Kierkegaard and the Self Before God Simon D. Podmore, 2011-02 Simon D Podmore claims that becoming a self before God is both a divine gift and an anxious obligation Before we can know God or ourselves we must come to a moment of recognition How this comes to be as well as the terms of such acknowledgment are worked out in Podmore's powerful new reading of Kierkegaard As he gives full consideration to Kierkegaard's writings Podmore explores themes such as despair anxiety melancholy and spiritual trial and how they are broken by the triumph of faith forgiveness and the love of God He confronts the abyss between the self and the divine in order to understand how we can come to know ourselves in relation to a God who is apparently so wholly Other God in Sound and Silence Danielle Anne Lynch, 2018-06-22 Music by its indeterminate levels of meaning poses a necessary challenge to a theology bound up in words Its distinctive nature as temporal and embodied allows a unique point of access to theological understanding Yet music does not exist in a cultural vacuum conveying universal truths but is a part of the complex nature of human lives This understanding of music as theology stems from a conviction that music is a theological means of knowing knowing something indeterminate yet meaningful This is an exploration of the means by which music might say something otherwise unsayable and in doing so allow for an encounter with the mystery of God God, Action, and Embodiment Thomas F. Tracy, 1984 In this tightly structured and well reasoned essay Thomas F Tracy outlines a fresh model for understanding God in His relationships with the world His creatures and history The Spirit of God Protap Chunder Mozoomdar, 1898 Religious Leadership Sharon Henderson Callahan, 2013-05-20 This 2 volume set within The SAGE Reference Series on Leadership tackles issues relevant to leadership in the realm of religion It explores such themes as the contexts in which religious leaders move leadership in communities of faith leadership as taught in theological education and training religious leadership impacting social change and social justice and more Topics are examined from multiple perspectives traditions and faiths Features Benefits By focusing on key topics with 100 brief chapters we provide students with more depth than typically found in encyclopedia entries but with less jargon or density than the typical journal article or research handbook chapter Signed chapters are written in language and style that is broadly accessible Each chapter is followed by a brief bibliography and further readings to guide students to sources for more in depth exploration in their research journeys A detailed index cross references between chapters and an online version enhance accessibility for today s student audience

The Nature of the Self Paul Gulian Cobben,2009-08-17 In the contemporary practical philosophy recognition is one of the central concepts Humans are thematized as individuals who recognize one another as moral and legal persons The central problem of the globalized multicultural societies is how to harmonize the legal persons who are free and equal with moral persons who may have their unique identity In The Nature of the Self the thesis is elaborated that in the contemporary discussion a central dimension of recognition is lacking All forms of moral and legal recognition presuppose the recognition at a more fundamental level the recognition of the body by the mind The systematic development of this relation can be performed with the help of a critical reconstruction of Hegel s project in the Phenomenology of Spirit and the Philosophy of Right This reconstruction results in a differentiated concept of the self in three forms of the self corresponding with three forms of recognition and their institutional embodiment This concept of the self not only competes with the position of Jürgen Habermas and Axel Honneth as it is explicitly elaborated but also with the one of John Rawls Encounter ,1980
