Why Semiotics:

Doubts and Directions in Translation Studies Yves Gambier, Miriam Shlesinger, Radegundis Stolze, 2007 Like previous collections based on congresses of the European Society of Translation Studies EST this volume presents the latest insights and findings in an ever changing ever challenging domain The twenty six papers carefully chosen from about 140 presented at the 4th EST Congress offer a bird s eye view of the most pressing concerns and most exciting vistas in Translation Studies today The editors final choices reflect a focus on quality of approach originality of topic and clarity of presentation and aim at capturing the most salient developments in the contemporary theory methodology and technology of TS As always in EST the themes covered relate to translation as well as interpreting They include discussion of a broad range of text types and skopoi and a diversity of themes such as translation universals translation strategies translation and ideology perception of translated humor translation tools etc Many of the papers force us to take a fresh look at seemingly well established paradigms and familiar notions while also making recourse to work being done in other disciplines Semiotics Linguistics Discourse Analysis Contrastive Studies

Why Semiotics? John N. Deely, 2004 This book seeks to penetrate the myths and conventions surrounding the terms semiotics and semiology including their respective associations with the persons of Charles S Peirce 1839 1914 and Ferdinand de Saussure 1857 1913

Interpretive Sociology and the Semiotic Imagination Andrea Cossu, Jorge Fontdevila, 2023-05-25 Semiotics provides key analytical tools to understand the creation and reproduction of meaning in social life Although some fields have productively incorporated semiotic models sociology still needs to engage with semiotic mediation Written by a diverse group of authors in interpretive sociology this ambitious volume asks what the relationship between meaning systems and action is how we can describe culture and which roles we assign to language social processes and cognition in a sociological context Contributors offer empirical research that not only outlines the conceptual issues at stake but also demonstrates how to do things with semiotics through case studies Synthesizing a diverse and fragmented landscape this is a key reference work for scholars interested in the connection between semiotics and sociology

Semiotics and Shock Advertisement Corinna Colette Vellnagel, 2011-02-18 Essay from the year 2011 in the subject Communications Public Relations Advertising Marketing Social Media grade Excellent The University of Surrey Department of English course Language of Advertising language English abstract There is advertisement and there is advertisement Most ads have the intention to make people aware of a product service or concept followed by the purchase and therefore support the free market economy Reschke 1998 p 1 but there are ads whose main aim is to inform people more precisely to call their attention to a certain topic Consequently advertisements cause different reactions Some ads make people smile or even giggle some just communicate plane information whilst others make people think and reflect and again others literally shock people Advertising campaigns such as the WWF 9 11 one the Get unhooked ads or Antonio Federici s banned campaign q v Appendix 1 3 are only three examples on the list of campaigns banned in the 21st century due to unethical content Those offensive advertisements include messages that transgress laws and customs e.g anti human rights breach a moral or social code e.g profanity vulgarity or outrage the moral or physical senses e.g gratuitous use of violence use of disgusting images Chan et al 2007 p 608 Researchers found out that adverts which are incongruent with social norms attract attention and are more likely to be retained in memory Gulas and Weinberger 2006 p 173 Attracting interest can be done on different ways by either using attention attracting pictures sounds signs or just simple words and phrases

Developments in Linguistics and Semiotics, Language Teaching and Learning, Communication Across Cultures ,1987 Why It Sells Marcel Danesi,2008 Marcel Danesi is an entertaining and insightful tour guide to decoding the messages woven into the advertisements commercials brand names and logos we see on a daily basis Guiding readers through the basics of how to interpret ads Danesi explores everything from product and package design to jingles cyberadvertising ad campaigns global impacts culture jamming and advertising effects Why It Sells will fascinate and inform all readers interested in how ads marketing and branding take hold in the consumer psyche

Aesthetics of Religion Alexandra K. Grieser,Jay Johnston,2017-12-18 This volume is the first English language presentation of the innovative approaches developed in the aesthetics of religion The chapters present diverse material and detailed analysis on descriptive methodological and theoretical concepts that together explore the potential of an aesthetic approach for investigating religion as a sensory and mediated practice In dialogue with yet different from other major movements in the field material culture anthropology of the senses for instance it is the specific intent of this approach to create a framework for understanding the interplay between sensory cognitive and socio cultural aspects of world construction The volume demonstrates that aesthetics as a theory of sensory knowledge offers an elaborate repertoire of concepts that can help to understand religious traditions These approaches take into account contemporary developments in scientific theories of perception neuro aesthetics and cultural studies highlighting the socio cultural and political context informing how humans perceive themselves and the world around them Developing since the 1990s the aesthetic approach has responded to debates in the study of religion in particular striving to overcome biased categories that confined religion either to texts and abstract beliefs or to an indisputable sui generis mode of experience This volume documents what has been achieved to date its significance for the study of religion and for interdisciplinary scholarship

Semiotics and Linguistics Y. Tobin,1990 An attempt to show the connection between semiotics and linguistics as sign oriented disciplines in what may perhaps have been the direction originally envisaged by Ferdinand de Saussurian It presents some sign oriented analyses for various grammatical and lexical problems

or science claim to discover objective truth when their arguments originate from subjective beings In Intentionality and Semiotics John Deely offers a controversial solution to the problem of subjectivity in inquiry He creates an interface between semiotics and the concept of intentionality as it appears in Aquinas s work to demonstrate that every sign is irrevocably linked to the reality of relations In the process Deely builds a bridge between classical thinkers such as Aristotle and modernists such as Heidegger and Peirce in this innovative volume
