Sin Always Matters RICK. BURGESS, 2024-02-16 There is nothing more comforting than God's love The grace and mercy God makes available to humankind through Jesus is so rich it's hard to process But if that's the only aspect of God's character we ever consider we're not getting a complete picture of who God is We will never be able to process God's love and mercy unless we put them next to God's judgment and wrath toward sin Put simply sin matters to God Always There's no circumstance where it doesn't matter There is no situation where God turns a blind eye toward sin Sin matters and it matters greatly We have only to look at the cross should we ever doubt it In Sin Always Matters Rick Burgess examines the depth of God's grace and mercy by looking at the costliness of our sins You'll learn exactly what sin does to us in God's eyes how God made a way for the perfect provision for our sin and how our attitude toward sin changes how we see God and our very lives This 31 day devotional will change your relationship with your sin and God's grace
