Why Bother:

Academic Life and Labour in the New University Ruth Barcan, 2016-03-23 What does it mean to be an academic today What kinds of experiences do students have and how are they affected by what they learn Why do so many students and their teachers feel like frauds Can we learn to teach and research in ways that foster hope and deflate pretension Academic Life and Labour in the New University Hope and Other Choices addresses these big questions discussing the challenges of teaching and researching in the contemporary university the purpose of research and its fundamental value and the role of the academy against the background of major changes to nature of the university itself Drawing on a range of international media sources political discourse and many years professional experience this volume explores approaches to teaching and research with special emphasis on the importance of collegiality intellectual honesty and courage With attention to the intersection of large scale institutional changes and intellectual shifts such as the rise of transdisciplinarity and the development of a pluralist curriculum this book proposes the pursuit of more ethical compassionate and critical forms of teaching and research As such it will be of interest not only to scholars of cultural studies and education but to all those who care about the fate of the university as an institution including young scholars seeking to join the academy

Words Eddie Currie, 2022-03-31 Writing poetry is not easy but these poems were an indicator that we have no idea what God can unlock and do in us when we have a willing heart The poems in this book have been written in an amazing array of situations and feelings some up and some down some critical and some not and at different seasons and different events The author has written poems about many things his family and his circumstances Many are written about his wider Christian family and about where he has stood in his Christian experience good and bad He has now had the opportunity in the middle of self isolation and the coronavirus to read over them again and put them into book form

Why History? Keith Jenkins, 1999 The author aims to show through a series of case studies of Derrida and others that postmodern ways of thinking signal the end of history history especially when taken in either of two forms the metanarrative on the one hand and the professional academic form on the other
