Wicked Guardian:

Fabricating Jesus Craig A. Evans, 2025-06-16 Modern historical study of the Gospels seems to give us a new portrait of Jesus every spring just in time for Easter The more unusual the portrait the more it departs from the traditional view of Jesus the more attention it gets in the popular media Why are scholars so prone to fabricate a new Jesus Why is the public so eager to accept such claims without question What methods and assumptions predispose scholars to distort the record Is there a more sober approach to finding the real Jesus Commenting on such recent releases as Bart Ehrman's Misquoting Jesus James Tabor's The Jesus Dynasty Michael Baigent's The Jesus Papers and the Gospel of Judas for which he served as an advisory board member to the National Geographic Society Craig Evans offers a sane approach to examining the sources for understanding the historical Jesus

The Patriot Thomas Littlefield Marble, 1908

Lore of the School of Elijah William Gordon Braude, Israel James Kapstein, 1997 Tanna Debe Eliyyahu is a midrashic work thought to have been composed between the third and the tenth centuries Unlike all the other midrashim it does not consist of a compilation of individual homilies but is a unified work shaped with a character of its own This Midrash is distinguished by its didactic and moral aims The author deals with the divine precepts and the reasons for them and the importance and knowledge of Torah prayer and repentance He is especially concerned with the ethical and religious values that are enshrined in the lives of the patriarchs In the eye of many students and scholars it is unique a masterpiece of Jewish thought

Jesus and His Contemporaries C.A. Evans, 2018-12-10 The first part of this book attempts to situate Jesus in his historical and cultural context through comparisons with the prayers parables prophecies and miracles attributed to various Jewish figures of Palestine who are Jesus near contemporaries It is concluded that Jesus teachings and activities do not represent a radical break with the piety and restorative hopes of many of his contemporaries This conclusion stands in tension with some of the recent Jesus research especially emanating from the Jesus Seminar which tends to view Jesus as a Stoic or Cynic philosopher with little interest in the restoration of Israel and the fulfilment of prophecy The second part of the book explores the aims of Jesus and the factors that led to Jesus death This publication has also been published in paperback please click here for details
