Healthy Recipes Trending:

Innovation and Trends in the Global Food Systems, Dietary Patterns and Healthy Sustainable Lifestyle in the Digital Age, 2nd edition Maha Hoteit, Reema Fayezy Tayyem, Radwan Qasrawi, Haleama Al Sabbah, 2023-07-31 All aspects of feeding and nourishing people growing harvesting packaging processing transporting marketing and consuming food are part of the food system Even before the COVID 19 pandemic food systems faced many challenges such as hunger increases which affected up to 811 million people as of 2020 while healthy diets were unaffordable for at least 3 billion people More than 80% of the population affected by hunger and 95% of people unable to afford a healthy diet were found in Asia and Africa Transformation of the global food system is clearly needed if we wish to embed equity sustainability and health as priorities in food provision and consumption Some of these transformations will be facilitated through new technologies while others will require public policy shifts changes in the private agro food industry actions by civil society and behavioral changes by individuals In this dynamic context technology actors and the consumers they serve sit at an important nexus within the food system and have the potential to make decisions that cut across the challenges and opportunities to improve sustainable food system outcomes Although food security has improved in developed countries many countries particularly low to middle income countries LMIC suffer from significant food insecurity challenges In addition food production accessibility and availability have been further impacted due to the COVID 19 outbreak causing growing global concerns regarding food security especially within the most vulnerable communities Moreover the transformation of food systems for addressing healthy nutrition food insecurity and public health issues is a global concern Food security and nutrition systems are directly related to human well being and global stability particularly in a time when diets transition toward increased reliance upon processed foods increased fast food intake high consumption of edible oils and sugar sweetened beverages lack of physical activities and increased lifestyles worldwide These changes in lifestyle continue to contribute to the growing pandemic of non communicable diseases such as obesity diabetes hypertension and cardiovascular diseases are clearly noticed across the globe The study of nutrition systems food security and the roles of technological advances especially in LMIC is considered the major factor in understanding food transition and population health Physical inactivity threatens LMIC public health as it is a prime behavioral risk factor associated with major non communicable diseases such as coronary heart disease type 2 diabetes and breast and colon cancer Its long term impacts increasingly burden national economies Decreasing its prevalence is paramount toward decreasing premature mortality and restoring healthy populations In its most recent iteration of a global action plan for the prevention of non communicable diseases the World Health Organization established voluntary global targets to reduce physical inactivity by 10% Currently limited published systematic analysis of physical inactivity prevalence among Muslim majority countries exists Existing literature is concentrated on Arab countries which represent less than half of all Muslim nations To date however pan Islamic physical inactivity data have not been reported

Doing so can potentially galvanize religion specific agencies e.g Islamic Relief Worldwide Organization of Islamic Cooperation to support efforts aimed at decreasing physical inactivity

Modern Status Trends Ocean Ecosoft,AI,2025-02-21 In today's digital age Modern Status Trends examines how digital media platforms have reshaped our understanding of social status and face It explores how traditional markers of status like wealth are now intertwined with online metrics such as follower counts and engagement rates The book highlights the tension between authentic self expression and strategic self presentation revealing how individuals navigate the pressures of maintaining a positive online persona amidst constant social comparison The book progresses by first laying a theoretical foundation around status face and digital media It then presents case studies of various social groups like influencers and how they use digital platforms Finally it addresses the psychological consequences of digital status seeking such as social comparison and the ethical implications of online status competition Through sociological surveys and analysis of algorithmic architectures Modern Status Trends offers insights into the evolving dynamics of online interactions and their effects on social hierarchies

Cookbook Popular Focus Everett Langford,AI,2025-02-19 Cookbook Popular Focus explores the enduring significance of cookbooks in our digital age arguing they are more than just recipe books they are cultural artifacts reflecting dietary trends culinary trends and societal values The book examines how these publications have maintained their market relevance amidst online competition with insights into how they have adapted to and influenced contemporary food culture From historical household manuals to diverse culinary guides cookbooks offer a curated experience that contrasts with the overwhelming nature of online recipes The book progresses systematically first establishing the cookbook's cultural and economic importance then delving into the impact of dietary movements like veganism and gluten free eating on cookbook content It also analyzes the globalization of cuisine within cookbooks considering issues of authenticity and cultural appropriation For example cookbooks provide tangible curated content offering a sense of authority while also showcasing how international cuisine is adapted for Western audiences Ultimately Cookbook Popular Focus emphasizes the cookbook's resilience and adaptability It offers valuable insights for food enthusiasts culinary students and anyone interested in the cultural history of food writing and the publishing industry highlighting the cookbook's ongoing role in shaping culinary practices

Postmillennial Trends in Anglophone Literatures, Cultures and Media Soňa Šnircová,2019-02-08 The book offers a collection of papers that draw on contemporary developments in cultural studies in their discussions of postmillennial trends in works of Anglophone literature and media The first section of the book Addressing the Theories of a New Cultural Paradigm comprises ten essays that present respectively performatist metamodernist digimodernist and hypomodernist readings of selected texts in order to test the usefulness of recent theories in explorations of the new paradigm in literary media and food studies The papers cover a wide variety of genres including the novel the film the documentary the cookbook the food magazine and the food commercial and present a number of themes which shed light on the nature of the new paradigm The second part of the volume Mapping the Dynamics of a New Sensibility offers a wider perspective and presents seven papers that search for evidence of a new sensibility in selected examples of postmillennial texts These contributions move beyond the frameworks of the theories explored in the first part in order to offer new perspectives in the contributors respective fields of interest
