Time Of The Toad:

The Time of the Toad Dalton Trumbo,1982 The Time of the Toad Dalton Trumbo,2020-06-25 The Time of the Toad is a searing classic about political repression in America by the legendary screenwriter Dalton Trumbo In the early 1940s Trumbo and many other artists writers and intellectuals who shared anti war sympathies and anti fascist ideals were active members of the American communist party but their ideology did not go unnoticed In 1947 during the era of Joseph McCarthy and the Red Scare in America he and nine other Hollywood screenwriters the Hollywood Ten were called to testify before the U S government s House Committee on Un American Activities Commission Trumbo and others who refused to cooperate were charged with contempt he later served nearly a year in prison and was blacklisted as a screenwriter for the following decade The Time of the Toad explores both the contempt citations and the greater philosophical issues they raised for the nation The toad of the title is in reference to an 1890s article by mile Zola in which the animal in question serves as a rhetorical metaphor for how to survive living in a repressive socio political environment Zola suggested that you have to swallow a live toad each day to immunize yourself to the moral indifference of the society around you The analogy was as apt during Trumbo s time in the mid twentieth century and unfortunately is still relevant and meaningful The Time of the Toad remains a powerful testament to the courage of Trumbo s principled stand and a timeless treatise on the value of free speech and thought Print ed The Time of the Toad Dalton Trumbo (Filmregisseur),1972 Natural History in Shakespeare's
