Timothy Findley:

Censorship in Canadian Literature Mark Cohen,2001 Since judgment is enmeshed in the fabric of human endeavour censorship is inevitable since censorship is inevitable Cohen concludes debate over whether censorship itself is desirable should give way to a search for censorship practices that are more just BOOK JACKET Timothy Findley's The Wars Dennis Garnhum,2008 This highly theatrical adaptation of Timothy Findley s classic novel traces the brutal coming of age of Robert Ross a sensitive idealist who goes off to the Great War in 1915 Ross who has a fondness for animals and shares a strong bond with his wheelchair bound sister trades his comfortable surroundings in Canada for the nightmare world of trench warfare We watch Ross s slow unravelling as he moves from home to train to barracks and finally to the mud smoke and chlorine gas of the front line in France With death and dying everywhere around him Ross makes a desperate attempt to show his faith in life Cruelty heroism terror and honour The Wars takes us deep inside the mind of a soldier and straight onto the bloody battlefield The Wars is one of Canada s most beloved novels winner of the Governor General s Award for Fiction in 1977 This adaptation evokes the spirit imagery and heart of the novel and adds the immediacy of the theatrical form

Canadian Science Fiction and Fantasy David Ketterer,1992 Tiff Sherrill Grace,2020-08-25 Timothy Findley 1930 2002 was one of Canada s foremost writers an award winning novelist playwright and short story writer who began his career as an actor in London England Findley was instrumental in the development of Canadian literature and publishing in the 1970s and 80s During those years he became a vocal advocate for human rights and the anti war movement His writing and interviews reveal a man concerned with the state of the world a man who believed in the importance of not giving in to despair despite his constant struggle with depression Findley believed in the power of imagination and creativity to save us Tiff A Life of Timothy Findley is the first full biography of this eminent Canadian writer Sherrill Grace provides insight into Findley s life and struggles through an exploration of his private journals and his relationships with family his beloved partner Bill Whitehead and his close friends including Alec Guinness William Hutt and Margaret Laurence Based on many interviews and exhaustive archival research this biography explores Findley s life and work the issues that consumed him and his often profound depression over the evils of the twentieth century Shining through his darkness are Findley s generous humour his unforgettable characters and his hope for the future These qualities inform canonic works like The Wars 1977 Famous Last Words 1981 Not Wanted on the Voyage 1984 and The Piano Man s Daughter 1995 Timothy Findley Collection Timothy Findley,1988-10-01 Canadian Historical Writing R. Hulan,2014-06-12 Canadian Historical Writing presents an archaeology of contemporary Canadian historical writing within the theory and practice of historiography Drawing on international debates within the fields of literary studies and history the book focuses on the roles played by time evidence and interpretation in defining the historical Dominant Impressions Gerald Lynch,Angela Robbeson,1999 Canadian critics and scholars along with a growing number from around the world have long recognized the achievements of Canadian short story writers However these critics have tended to view the Canadian short story as a historically recent phenomenon This reappraisal corrects this mistaken view by exploring the literary and cultural antecedents of the Canadian short story Published in English The Great War in Post-Memory Literature and Film Martin Löschnigg, Marzena Sokolowska-Paryz, 2014-10-14 The twenty seven original contributions to this volume investigate the ways in which the First World War has been commemorated and represented internationally in prose fiction drama film docudrama and comics from the 1960s until the present The volume thus provides a comprehensive survey of the cultural memory of the war as reflected in various media across national cultures addressing the complex connections between the cultural post memory of the war and its mediation In four sections the essays investigate 1 the cultural legacy of the Great War including its mythology and iconography 2 the implications of different forms and media for representing the war 3 national memories foregrounding the differences in post memory representations and interpretations of the Great War and 4 representations of the Great War within larger temporal or spatial frameworks focusing specifically on the ideological dimensions of its remembrance in historical socio political gender oriented and post colonial contexts Stories of the Middle Space Deborah C. Bowen, 2010 Postmodernism's critics often accuse the movement of being dangerously amoral because of its apparent wariness of concepts such as truth ethics and justice Stories of the Middle Space explores the possibility of postmodernism with a conscience and examines a variety of British and Canadian postmodern fiction to show how twentieth century critical theory can be brought into fruitful dialogue with a faith based perspective Highlighting the wide variety of ethical concerns considered by writers such as Timothy Findley Thomas King Carol Shields Julian Barnes A S Byatt and Salman Rushdie Deborah Bowen makes the case for a new category of postmodern realism and shows how contemporary stories about the real and the good are constructed Applying theoretical insights from Emmanuel Levinas and Mikhail Bakhtin Bowen investigates categories of postmodern realism such as magic realism parody and metafiction while laying the groundwork for Christian readings of a medium that is often perceived as largely irreligious An illuminating study of well known contemporary writers Stories of the Middle Space is a critically nuanced and methodologically innovative work that reads the postmodern from a faith based perspectives to create new literary insights Deborah Bowen addresses the ethical concerns of a wide variety of postmodern fiction from a faith based perspective that engages with the decentred discourses of post structuralism She suggests that a focus on the middle space between language and the world not only provides new insights into the construction of the real and the notion of a good story but also resituates the possibility of Christian reading in a largely post Christian era BOOK JACKET Timothy Findley Giftset Timothy Findley, 1983-10-01 Current Contents, 1999 The Telling of Lies Timothy Findley, 1986 Canadian Literary Periodicals Index, 1998 Canadian Writers Since 1960 William Herbert New, 1986 Devoted to the writers of Canada who use English or French as their main language of artistic expression whose careers were effectively established during the decades of the 1960s and

1970s Publications of the Genealogical Society of Pennsylvania, 1917 Memoria e sogno Anne de Vaucher
Gravili, Alessandro Gebbia, 1996 Deleuze and Literature Ian Buchanan, John Marks, 2000 Although he is best known as a philosopher Deleuze's interests were extremely far reaching in addition to his important critiques of major philosophers like Kant Hume and Spinoza he also wrote extensively on literature cinema and art Characteristically he didn't apply philosophy to the arts he always tried to extract philosophy from them Deleuze wrote widely on literature but always with an eye to extract something new and interesting never merely to interpret Indeed his most notorious slogan was don't ask what it means Ask how it works He wrote monographs on Proust Kafka and Sacher Masoch He also wrote essays on Beckett Melville Jarry T E Lawrence D H Lawrence and Whitman The essays collected in this volume are the first devoted solely to Deleuze's work on literature Written by leading Deleuzian scholars the essays focus on two main questions how does Deleuze read literary texts And how can we read texts in a Deleuzian way Contributors Bruce Baugh Ian Buchanan Claire Colebrook Andre Pierre Colombat Tom Conley Hugh Crawford Marlene Goldman Eugene W Holland Greg Lambert John Marks Timothy S Murphy and Kenneth Surin Historiographic Metafiction in Modern American and Canadian Literature Bernd Engler, Kurt Müller, 1994 The Wars Timothy Findley, 2017-10-10 Robert Ross a sensitive nineteen year old Canadian officer went to war The War to End All Wars He found himself in the nightmare world of trench warfare of mud and smoke of chlorine gas and rotting corpses In this world gone mad Robert Ross performed a last desperate act to declare his commitment to life in the midst of death Official Report of the Debates of the House of Commons Canada. Parliament. House of Commons, 2002
