Vogel Federlos Helga M. Novak,1998 Bericht über die Tätigkeit des Folkloristischen forschungsbundes "FF." Reidar Thoralf Christiansen,1915 A State of Secrecy Alison Lewis,2021-10 Secret police agencies such as the East German Ministry for State Security kept enormous quantities of secrets about their own citizens relying heavily on human modes of data collection in the form of informants To date little is known about the complicated and conflicted lives of informers who often lived in a perpetual state of secrecy This is the first study of its kind to explore this secret surveillance society its arcane rituals and the secret lives it fostered Through a series of interlocking in depth case studies of informers in literature and the arts A State of Secrecy seeks answers to the question of how the collusion of the East German intelligentsia with the Stasi was possible and sustainable It draws on extensive original archive research conducted in the BStU Stasi Records Agency as well as eyewitness testimony literature and film and uses a broad array of methods from biography sociology cultural studies and literary history to political science and surveillance and intelligence studies In teasing out the various kinds of entanglements of intellectuals with power during the Cold War Lewis presents a microhistory
