

Walking In The Wild

Robert Kelsey

Walking In The Wild:

Walking in the Wilderness Michaela Keck, 2006 This book investigates the adaptation and transformation of the European peripatetic tradition in nineteenth century America in particular Henry David Thoreau's literary walks and their visual counterparts in American landscape painting Although Thoreau's perambulations in New World nature have been stated in scholarship no study has offered a comparative analysis nor has the philosophic contemplative aspect of his art of Walking been sufficiently studied The present study puts his walking pattern into a transatlantic as well as interdisciplinary context and illuminates the uniquely American aesthetic philosophic considerations underlying the genre of the walk in American nineteenth century literature and painting
