Walter Pater Three Major Texts:

Walter Pater Walter Pater,1986 Nineteenth Century Prose,1997 Theories of Art Moshe Barasch,2013-10-18 In this volume the third in his classic series on art theory Moshe Barasch traces the hidden patterns and interlocking themes in the study of art from impressionism to abstract art Barasch details the immense social changes in the creation presentation and reception of art which have set the history of art theory on a vertiginous new course the decreased relevance of workshops and art schools the replacement of the treatise by the critical review and the emerging interrelationship between scientific inquiry and artistic theory The consequent changes in the ways in which critics as well as artists conceptualized paintings and sculptures were radical marked by an obsession with intense sensory experiences psychological reflection on the effects of art and an attraction to the exotic and alien making for the most exciting and fertile period in the history of art criticism Nostalgia and Recollection in Victorian Culture A. Colley,1998-10-07 This book is about a group of Victorian British writers and artists Darwin Stevenson Gaskell Ruskin Pater Brown and Turner whose work emerges from recollection and whose texts embody the experience of nostalgia The study concentrates on the longing for a past that traverses the span of these writers and artists own lifetime It examines their particular experience of the nostalgic moment and provides an occasion to re examine the idea of nostalgia and to reflect on the act of recollection The Longman Anthology of British Literature David Damrosch,2003 The Longman Compact Anthology of British Literature is a concise and thoughtfully arranged survey of British literature Within its pages canonical authors mingle with newly visible writers English accents are heard next to Anglo Norman Welsh Gaelic and Scottish ones female and male voices are set in dialogue literature from the British Isles is integrated with post colonial writing and major works are illuminated by clusters of shorter texts that bring literary social and historical issues vividly to life Readers interested in British Literature Extraordinary Aesthetes Joseph Bristow,2023-04-14 The fin de si cle not only designated the end of the Victorian epoch but also marked a significant turn towards modernism Extraordinary Aesthetes critically examines literary and visual artists from England Ireland and Scotland whose careers in poetry fiction and illustration flourished during the concluding years of the nineteenth century This collection draws special attention to the exceptional contributions that artists poets and novelists made to the cultural world of the late 1880s and 1890s The essays illuminate a range of established increasingly acknowledged and lesser known figures whose contributions to this brief but remarkably intense cultural period warrant close attention Such figures include the critically neglected Mabel Dearmer whose stunning illustrations appear in Evelyn Sharp s radical fairy tales for children Equally noteworthy is the uncompromising short fiction of Ella D Arcy who played a pivotal role in editing the most famous journal of the 1890s The Yellow Book The discussion extends to a range of legendary writers including Max Beerbohm Oscar Wilde and W B Yeats whose works are placed in dialogue with authors who gained prominence during this period Bringing women s writing to the fore Extraordinary Aesthetes rebalances the achievements of artists and writers

during the rapidly transforming cultural world of the fin de siècle

Encyclopedia of the Essay Tracy Chevalier, 2012-10-12 This groundbreaking new source of international scope defines the essay as nonfictional prose texts of between one and 50 pages in length The more than 500 entries by 275 contributors include entries on nationalities various categories of essays such as generic such as sermons aphorisms individual major works notable writers and periodicals that created a market for essays and particularly famous or significant essays The preface details the historical development of the essay and the alphabetically arranged entries usually include biographical sketch nationality era selected writings list additional readings and anthologies

Imaginary Biographies Geoff Klock, 2007-06 Geoff Klock argues that the bizarre portrayal of historical writers in post Enlightenment English poetry constitutes a genre a battleground for two central conflicts the confrontation of the self sufficient Romantic imagination with the brute fact of external precursors in the nineteenth century and the participation in and simultaneous deflation of Romantic idealism in the twentieth

At the Threshold of Mystery Ewa Borkowska, 2005

The book At the Threshold of Mystery Poetic Encounters with Otherness addresses the problem of literary dialogue as it appears in the philosophical poetic and aesthetic discourses in the last two centuries Central to the dialogue with Otherness is a background discussion of the idea of friendship as an encounter with another individual with another man with God or gods and also with another culture the issues present in Emmanuel Levinas's ethical philosophy Merleau Ponty's concept of intersubjectivity becomes a crucial point in the creative construction of the philosophy of dialogue whose ideological antecedents date back to the times of Plato At the border of language or at the threshold of mystery there crowds what is metaphysically arcane or immediate that which signals the other the out there The central idea which this book examines is how to reconcile the hermetically sealed historical past with modern times in order to inaugurate the genuine philosophy of dialogue It is the author's strong belief that by interrupting totality the poetic work which often turns into the prophetic signature or voice the trace of otherness seems to give testimony to the primordial experience so essential for the birth of poetry The poetic examples of the mysterious encounters with Otherness are selected each in its most idiosyncratic way from Gerard Manley Hopkins Rainer Maria Rilke Paul Celan Seamus Heaney and two Polish poets Zbigniew Herbert and Adam Zagajewski but also from Walter Pater's aesthetic epiphanies

Exhibition Reforms and Systems Colleen Denney, 1990 The author researches the events that established the Grosvenor Gallery as the center of the English Aesthetic Movement and as a forum for avant garde experimental artists in London during the late 19th century She also examines how the Gallery continued after the end of the Aesthetic Movement and after internal conflict within management Finally the role that the Gallery played in formation of independent art exhibitions in London and on the Continent as an alternative to requirements of the British Royal Academy is explored Lyric Intimacy Emily Marie Harrington, 2004 Henry James Sheldon M. Novick, 2007 It was more than forty years ago that Leon Edel began to publish what at the time and for decades later was accepted as the definitive portrait of Henry James In the five volume work however James emerged as a somewhat bloodless man of little passion and no courage But now Sheldon Novick with his Henry James The Young Master has succeeded in bringing James fully to life by showing us a man with boldness of spirit and a profound capacity for affection We share James s childhood in New York in the mid nineteenth century suffer with him through illnesses sexual encounters early loves journey with him to London Paris and Rome as he tries to find both professional success and personal fulfillment And as the world opens to him as an internationally famous writer we share the experience of writing a series of celebrated novels culminating with Washington Square on which the play The Heiress is based and the masterpiece The Portrait of a Lady Library Journal ,1986 Postmodernist Culture Steven Connor, 1997-01-23 This 2nd edition of Postmodernist Culture considers the work of Lyotard and Jameson and the way modern theories are impinging on more areas of culture including the law music dance ecology technology ethnography and spatial theories
