Writing The Self:

Writing the Self Peter Heehs, 2013-02-14 Named an Outstanding Academic Title of the Year for 2013 by Choice The self has a history In the West the idea of the soul entered Christianity with the Church Fathers notably Augustine During the Renaissance the idea of the individual attained preeminence as in the works of Montaigne In the 17th century philosophers such as Descartes formulated notions of self hood that did not require a divine foundation in the next century Hume grew skeptical of the self s very existence Ideas of the self have changed markedly since the Romantic period and most scholars today regard it as at best a mental construct First person genres such as diaries and memoirs have provided an outlet for self expression Protestant diaries replaced the Catholic confessional but secular diaries such as Pepys s may reveal yet more about the self After Richardson novels competed with diaries and memoirs as vehicles of self expression though memoirs survived and continue to thrive while the diary has found a new incarnation in the personal blog Writing the Self narrates the intertwined histories of the self and of self expression through first person literature The Beginners' Guide to Writing, Self-Publishing and Marketing a Book Kehinde Adesina, Taiwo Adesina, The Self on the Page Celia Hunt, Fiona Sampson, 1998 In this ground breaking work the rapidly developing field of the therapeutic use of creative writing is explored on two levels Intended as an introduction to the field it will interest health professionals and those working in the social services The Traveling and Writing Self Marguerite Helmers, Tilar Mazzeo, 2009-03-26 The collected essays that comprise The Traveling and Writing Self examine the critical relationship between the journey the author of the travel narrative and published and private texts Contributors draw attention to the performed nature of the travel writer s self emphasizing that the carefully crafted persona of the traveler protagonist is a fiction The traveler s identity is frequently in flux negotiating between social convention literary convention personal motivations and nationalist agendas The Traveling and Writing Self is a notable addition to studies of travel writing because the contributors explore several genres in addition to the traditional accounts of the journey these genres include histories of exploration diaries memoir poetry film and short story Not limited to a specific historical era or geographical location individual chapters explore the work of Rebecca Solnit Isak Dinesen Melinda Atwood William Byrd E J Pratt Beatrice Grimshaw and Louisa May Alcott From each we learn that perhaps the most interesting subject of any travel account is the author Self-regulated Learning and Second Language Writing Lin Sophie Teng, 2022-05-30 This monograph is to investigate practical applications and contributions of self regulated learning SRL to second foreign language L2 writing from sociocognitive and sociocultural perspectives It showcases a comprehensive and updated review of conceptual and methodological issues of SRL and the state of the art research on its applications to L2 learning and teaching This volume further elaborates the design and results of a large scale project which conducts observational and intervention studies investigating SRL strategies in L2 writing This book reveals that a cross disciplinary understanding of SRL strategies plays a crucial role in advancing theoretical functions of SRL and in extending its applications to L2 education in general and L2 writing in particular This book makes significant contributions to developing and validating new conceptual frameworks and tools for evaluating multidimensional structures of SRL strategies and self efficacy in L2 writing elucidating the interplay of personal behavioral environmental and psychological factors with SRL strategies and writing performance and presenting an effective self regulation instructional model for nurturing L2 learners motivation and confidence to strategize reflect and succeed in writing Teng has established herself as one of the prominent scholars in the discussion of self regulated learning strategies Her contribution to the fields of L2 writing and strategic learning are undeniable This monograph is an excellent showing of how her endeavors to bring established theories from educational psychology to applied writing research have progressed over a number of methodologically rigorous studies It should be required reading for anyone with an interest in cultivating strategic writers not only in the Chinese context but worldwide Nathan Thomas UCL Institute of Education
