Writing The Subject:

Women as Writing Subjects in High Qing China Chengjuan Sun, 2024-07-29 In what ways did Qing gentry women's concern for gender and social propriety shape their assertions of female subjectivity and agency How did they exploit the state promotion of female virtue and Confucian morality for self fulfillment With a focus on three of the most widely acclaimed mid Qing women authors this book uses both synchronic and diachronic approaches to analyze writings on conjugal love widowhood women's education maternal teaching boudoir objects and history illustrating their vibrant gendered revision of literati poetic convention thus proposing an alternative analytical framework that goes beyond the rigid dichotomy of compliance versus resistance

Lacan and Critical Feminism Rahna McKey Carusi, 2020-12-29 This book takes a critical feminist approach to Lacan's fundamental concepts merging discourse and sexuation theories in a novel way for both psychoanalysis and feminism and exploring the possibility of a feminist subject within a non masculine logic In Lacan and Critical Feminism Carusi merges Lacan's theories of discourse and sexuation not only from a gender sexuality angle but also from a literary feminist and women's studies framework By drawing examples from literature film art and socio political movements to focus on discourse and sexuation the text examines how tropes impact the subject's positionality within any discourse mode The book also uses women's collective experience and action to illustrate ways that women have repositioned dominant narratives discursively This text represents essential reading for researchers interested in the relationship between Lacan and feminist theory

The Poetics of Reading Eitel Friedrich Timm, Kenneth Mendoza, 1993 Situates the act of critical reading in the context of poetic aesthetics This volume situates the act of critical reading in the context of poetic aesthetics Running alongside recent post structuralist theories the textuality of such matters as literary discourse history media philosophy and religion has emerged as a focal point of debate in the humanities The essays here examine how questions of the canon genres and transformation of texts challenge the present epistemological situation taking an interdisciplinary approach to textual readings their methodology is drawn from a range of literary figures and critics including Lessing Kafka Walter Benjamin and Derrida The study also addresses the controversial predicament of subjectivity
