Written On The Wind:

Melodrama and Meaning Barbara Klinger, 1994-08-22 Melodrama and Meaning is a major addition to the new historical approach to film studies Barbara Klinger shows how institutions most associated with Hollywood cinema academia the film industry review journalism star publicity and the mass media create meaning and ideological identity for films Chapters focus on Sirk's place in the development of film studies from the 1950s through the 1980s as well as the history of the critical reception both academic and popular of Sirk's films a history that outlines journalism's role in public tastemaking Other chapters are devoted to Universal's selling of Written on the Wind the machinery of star publicity and the changing image of Rock Hudson and the contemporary institutionalized camp response to Sirk that has resulted from developments in mass culture

Imitation of Life Douglas Sirk, 1991 Douglas Sirk Claus Detler Sierck was born in Hamburg Germany in 1900 He made nine films before fleeing Nazi Germany eventually coming to America His best known films made during the 1950s all of them melodramas were Magnificent Obsession All That Heaven Allows The Tarnished Angels Written on the Wind and Imitation of Life made in 1958 released in 1959 This volume includes the complete continuity script of the film critical commentary and published reviews interviews with the director and a filmography and bibliography It also includes an excellent introduction by Lucy Fischer

Colour Steven Peacock, 2019-01-04 Colour remains one of the few uncharted territories in writing about film style Colour is the first monograph to deal with the close criticism of film colour across decades and countries Through detailed explorations of films such as Three Colours White and The Green Ray this study offers a way of approaching interpreting and appreciating cinematic colour The book also considers film's ability to place colour in a shifting relationship with all other points of style including camerawork editing performance music and lighting Accessible and inventive in its approach Colour invites the reader to see films differently providing a fresh perspective of this overlooked element of cinema aesthetics

The world of the Hollywood film has been thoroughly landscaped with familiar locales from sitting rooms and staircases to castles roads small towns and river idylls In this book Michael V Montgomery invokes Bakhtin's work on the chronotope to demonstrate that some Hollywood locales have surprisingly ancient progenitors He considers the hermeneutic functions of recognizable chronotopes in the film text and the central importance of the idyllic chronotope for political commentary Dr Montgomery also branches out from Bakhtin's discussion to consider recent locales that appear to be candidates for chronotopes the picaresque highway of the 1960s the troubled New York of the 1970s and the shopping mall of the 1980s
