If I Had Said It Hunny Verma,2025-09-28 What if the words you didn't say changed everything Eighteen year old Kartik who grew up in the quiet hills of Himachal Pradesh has always been one sentence too late struggling to say the right thing especially when it matters most Separated from his childhood friend Neha and betrayed by his first love he drifts through silence weighed down by exam stress guilt and the haunting question Why As Neha re enters his life their bond begins to bloom into something deeper but unspoken feelings and old wounds stand in the way Kartik finds himself torn between chasing his own dreams and living up to the expectations of his family especially those left behind by his late father With every choice he must confront the echoes of his past and the risk of losing what matters most Will he finally find the courage to speak his heart or will his silence cost him everything Tender nostalgic and deeply emotional this is a coming of age story about friendship love family and the power of the words we never say Collier's,1919 Carney V.
