The world didn't end with a bang. It ended with a notification. Steven Zolan was drowning in the worst Monday of his existence, gridlocked in traffic, racing toward a meaningless meeting, questioning a career that had become a slow death in a cubicle. Then reality shattered like glass, the heavens split apart, and Earth was violently ripped into the vast multiverse by a force that gave zero thought to whether humanity was ready. Welcome to Integration. Your species has been evaluated. Your trial commences now. Dropped into a lethal Tutorial with a thousand terrified strangers, Steven grasps one savage truth: immediately evolve or become someone else's experience point. While other humans desperately forge alliances, argue about ethics, and mourn the civilization they've lost, Steven experiences an emotion he hasn't felt in a decade. He feels truly alive. Equipped with nothing except raw instinct, a bizarre connection to what the System designates as Aberrant Essence, and zero interest in playing things safe, Steven uncovers a startling reality: he might be precisely what this merciless new existence was engineered to forge. A predator. A survivor. An anomaly the multiverse has never witnessed before. But there's always a cost to power, and the Tutorial is merely the opening act. Ancient powers observe from the void. Cosmic beings wager on outcomes. And somewhere beyond reach, Earth crumbles without anyone to defend it. Steven faces an ultimatum: follow the ancient rules established by gods and abominations who've had millennia to perfect their dominance, or tear his own crimson path to the summit and reshape what being human means in a universe where humanity might already be extinct. Because when the apocalypse arrives, dressed in RPG mechanics and the powerful feast on the powerless, the real question isn't about survival; it's about how ruthless you're willing to become to conquer everything. The Tutorial has launched. Your former existence is finished. Your authentic life begins this moment.
