Walls And Bars:

Walls and Bars Eugene Victor Debs, 1927 Eugene Debs labor organizer and leader of the Socialist Party describes his experience at the federal penitentiary in Atlanta Georgia where he was imprisoned at the age of 63 for 32 months for criticizing the government's jailing of Americans who opposed World War I Walls and Bars (Classic Reprint) Eugene Victor Debs, 2017-11-19 Excerpt from Walls and Bars My prison experience includes three county jails one state penitentiary and one federal prison I have no personal grievance to air Special favors were never accorded me nor would I accept any Introduced to jail life in Chicago 1894 Recognized my kinship with prisoners everywhere Prison problem is co related with poverty which is a social disease Any of us may go to prison at any time for breaking the law or upholding it My spirit was never imprisoned About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Walls & Bars Eugene Victor Debs, 2000 Debs only full length book first published in 1927 is a lively memoir as well as a stirring critique drawing on his own prison experiences He served time for his leading role in the Pullman Strike in 1894 and was sent to the penitentiary again in 1919 for opposing World War 1 In 1920 as Convict N 9653 he ran for President on the Socialist ticket and received a million votes Debs explains in this book why prisons don't and can't reform or deter anyone and how prisons in fact create criminals He discusses prison labor and the links between prison and militarism Above all he exposes the class bias of the entire US criminal justice system showing that the prison problem is directly correlated with poverty His conclusion Capitalism and crime have become almost synonymous terms Arguing that prison should not merely be reformed but abolished Debs called for a socialism of solidarity freedom and love firmly rooted in industrial democracy without which political democracy is a sham Only with the advent of such a social revolution Debs's view can society succeed in taking the jail out of man as well taking man out of jail This handsome new edition contains an important introduction by David Dellinger himself a lifelong revolutionary and no stranger to prisons
