Baker, Peter Michael Stephan Hacker, 1980 The Ontology of the Analytic Tradition and Its Origins Jan Dejnozka, 1996 The analytic movement advertised its linguistic turn as a radical break from the two thousand year old substance tradition But this is an illusion On the fundamental level of ontology there is enough reformulation and presupposition of traditional no entity without identity themes to analogize Frege Russell Wittgenstein and Quine to Aristotle as paradigmatic of modified realism Thus the pace of ontology is glacial Frege and Russell not Wittgenstein and Quine emerge as the true analytic progenitors of no entity without identity offering between them at least twenty nine private language arguments and sixty four no entity without identity theories Understanding Vagueness Petr Cintula, Christian G. Fermueller, Lluís Godo, 2011 Vague language and corresponding models of inference and information processing is an important and challenging topic as witnessed by a number of recent monographs and collections of essays devoted to the topic This volume collects fifteen papers the majority of which originated with talks presented at the conference Logical Models of Reasoning with Vague Information LoMoReVI September 14 17 2009 in ejkovic that initiated a EUROCORES LogICCC project with the same title At least two features set the current volume apart from other texts first the interdisciplinary nature of the topic is nicely reflected by the wide range of interests of the authors who include philosophers linguists logicians as well as mathematicians and computer scientists Secondly all the papers are accompanied by comments written by other authors and a few outside experts These comments and corresponding replies by the authors document the very lively ongoing debate on adequate models of vague language Explaining, Introductory Procedures and Closure, Advanced Questioning C. Parliament, 1878 Philosophical Reflections on Education and Society Creighton Peden, Donald Chipman, 1978 Interaction and Cognition in Linguistics Carlos Inchaurrealde, Celia Florén, 2003 The present book is a collection of selected papers held at the 11th Susanne H bner Seminar from the 26th of February to the 1st of March 2001 in Zaragoza Spain The papers included in this volume address several issues connected with the relationship between what seems to be external and internal in human language usage By external is meant here communication and more concretely interaction by internal processing and conceptualization that is to say cognition These two sides coincide with the subject matter of two of the most active paradigms of linguistic research nowadays pragmatics and cognitive linguistics and the two main sections of this volume reflect two possible entry points to this dichotomy. The first section, Interacting, clearly puts the emphasis on interaction itself, whereas the second section, The system behind, is concerned with metaphor, metonymy, and categorization processes.
