

The illustration depicts Remedios Varo seated in a large, reddish-brown, rounded boat. She is wearing a dark hat and a light-colored, buttoned jacket, and is focused on sewing. The boat is set against a background of tall, textured, vertical columns that resemble tree trunks or stone pillars. To the right, a small, ornate table with a glass on it sits on a wooden platform. The overall style is characteristic of Varo's surrealist and detailed work.

Ruptures in Migration - The Ordinary and Unexpected Journeys of Global Migrants Delphine Mercier, Víctor Zúñiga, Kamel Doraï, Mustapha El Miri, Michel Peraldi, 2021-12-16 This book aims to portray migratory experiences documented in the form of biographical narratives We are interested in the dynamic aspect of migration which effectively becomes a complex trajectory made up of stages returns and circulations and no longer simply as in the industrial era a bipolar exile there and here In these complex and dynamic movements many trajectories become bifurcations by which we mean shifting fates In these stories we found paths events and bifurcations all combined together in terms of biographical construction based on accumulated experiences These narratives are both very banal and very unusual journeys portraying a new international human globalization They are simultaneously stories of barriers to be crossed in chaotic situations interspersed with peaceful events in quiet contexts These journeys reveal not only the weight of migration policies but also the certification policies implemented and developed by various countries This book presents itineraries social logics of mobility the routes become the analysts If statistics record regularities the personal approach captures specificities that produce meaning and contribute to a reinterpretation of current forms of mobility The superb collection of ethnographies that the reader will find in the pages to follow provide yet further insight into the ways in which movement across state borders represents a creative accomplishment With cases selected from around the world the Middle East North Africa Latin America North America and Europe the chapter in this book demonstrate that migration is undertaken not only against states and their bureaucracies but in tension with and possibly in opposition to migrants closest associates precisely the people whom social capital theory paints as the font of the resources that make migration possible Roger Waldinger University of California Los Angeles USA Contents Foreword Roger Waldinger Introduction Víctor Zúñiga Kamel Dora Delphine Mercier and Michel Peraldi Part One Migrant Families and Their Re configuration Chinese Migrant Women Creating Meaningful Lives Despite Vulnerable Statuses H l ne Le Bail Conflict and Migration from Iraq Building a Life in Exile Amid the Twists and Turns of a Dramatic History Cyril Roussel From Family Dispersion to Asylum Seeking Palestinian Refugees in Lebanon and
