Undivided Self:

The Undivided Self David Charles, 2021-03-16 Aristotle initiated the systematic investigation of perception the emotions memory desire and action developing his own account of these phenomena and their interconnection The Undivided Self aims to gain a philosophical understanding of his views and to examine how far they withstand critical scrutiny Aristotle's account it is argued constitutes a philosophically live alternative to conventional post Cartesian thinking about psychological phenomena and their place in a material world Charles offers a way to dissolve rather than solve the mind body problem we have inherited

The Undivided Self Theodore Dimon, 1999 Outlining the basic principles of the Alexander Technique the objective of which is to gain conscious control over one's actions The Undivided Self challenges the concept that mind and body are interacting systems Once we become aware of damaging patterns we can learn to break these habits and establish a new beneficial approach to health that will help control and prevent anxiety pain and distress

Disarming Words Shaden M. Tageldin, 2011-06-12 In a book that radically challenges conventional understandings of the dynamics of cultural imperialism Shaden M Tageldin unravels the complex relationship between translation and seduction in the colonial context She examines the afterlives of two occupations of Egypt by the French in 1798 and by the British in 1882 in a rich comparative analysis of acts fictions and theories that translated the European into the Egyptian the Arab or the Muslim Tageldin finds that the encounter with European Orientalism often invited colonized Egyptians to imagine themselves equal to or even masters of their colonizers and thus paradoxically to translate themselves toward virtually into the European Moving beyond the domination resistance binary that continues to govern understandings of colonial history Tageldin redefines cultural imperialism as a politics of translational seduction a politics that lures the colonized to seek power through empire rather than against it thereby repressing its inherent inequalities She considers among others the interplays of Napoleon and Hasan al Attar Rifa'a al Tahtawi Silvestre de Sacy and Joseph Agoub Cromer Ali Mubarak Muhammad al Siba'i and Thomas Carlyle Ibrahim Abd al Qadir al Mazini Muhammad Husayn Haykal and Ahmad Hasan al Zayyat and Salama Musa G Elliot Smith Naguib Mahfouz and Lawrence Durrell In conversation with new work on translation comparative literature imperialism and nationalism Tageldin engages postcolonial and poststructuralist theorists from Frantz Fanon Edward Said and Gayatri Spivak to Jean Baudrillard Walter Benjamin Emile Benveniste and Jacques Derrida

The Activist WPA Linda Adler-Kassner, 2008-04-10 One wonders if there is any academic field that doesn't suffer from the way it is portrayed by the media by politicians by pundits and other publics How well scholars in a discipline articulate their own definition can influence not only issues of image but the very success of the discipline in serving students and its other constituencies The Activist WPA is an effort to address this range of issues for the field of English composition in the age of the Spellings Commission and the No Child Left Behind Act Drawing on recent developments in framing theory and the resurgent traditions of progressive organizers Linda Adler Kassner calls upon composition teachers and administrators to develop strategic programs of collective action that do justice to composition's best principles Adler Kassner argues that the story of college composition can be changed only when writing scholars bring the wonders down to articulate a theory framework that is pragmatic and intelligible to those outside the field and then create messages that reference that framework In The Activist WPA she makes a case for developing a more integrated vision of outreach English education and writing program administration
