John Pentland Mahaffy

Unexpected Odybey:

Harry and Arthur Lawrence J. Haas, 2021-12 How the bipartisan partnership of President Harry Truman and Senator Arthur Vandenberg revolutionized America's foreign policy and set the course for America's global leadership through the Cold War and beyond

Travel and Home in Homer's Odyssey and Contemporary Literature Carol Dougherty, 2019-06-20 Travel and Home in Homer's Odyssey and Contemporary Literature brings Homer's Odyssey together with contemporary literary texts ranging from Rebecca West's The Return of the Soldier to Marilynne Robinson's Housekeeping and Cormac McCarthy's The Road to produce new readings that reframe reorient and ultimately revise aspects of Homer's iconic story of travel and home While some novels share with the Odyssey a celebration of the creative process of improvisation to rethink the relationship between home and travel others draw upon nostalgia our complicated longing for home to unsettle the inevitability of return Rather than offering an explicit retelling of Homer's poem each of these novels prompts us to revisit the relationship between travel and home that Odysseus and Penelope embody to ask new questions of that well read text Does travel reinforce or destabilize our notion of home Are mobility and domesticity irrevocably gendered or can we imagine a world in which Penelope travels and Odysseus stays home Just as Odysseus continually reinvents his own identity with each new encounter both abroad and at home so too we as readers participate in an improvisatory interpretive experiment of our own This volume sets out a new model for reading ancient and contemporary texts together one that challenges the conventional chronological assumptions inherent in many works of classical reception No longer a stable text to which we as readers return time and again to find it the same the Odyssey together with the novels with which it engages changes and adapts with each new literary encounter

Anzacs in the Middle East Mark Johnston, 2012-11-22 Anzacs in the Middle East is a compelling exploration of the experiences of soldiers who fought in the Middle East during World War II Spurred by a sense of adventure and duty they set sail to countries of which they knew very little The book examines the relationships between Australians and their allies and also how they related to the local people Greeks Egyptians Syrians Lebanese and Palestinians Mark Johnston draws on extensive research to provide a new perspective on the famous campaigns at Tobruk and Alamein as well as significant but less familiar battles at Bardia Retimo and Damascus Featuring first hand accounts and stories from the front line the book discovers the true nature of the larrikin Australian and is a must read for anyone interested in Australia's military history This book is a companion volume to Mark Johnston's previous books At the Front Line and Fighting the Enemy
