Global Hakka Jessieca Leo, 2015-08-25 In Global Hakka Hakka Identity in the Remaking Jessieca Leo offers a needed update on Hakka history and a reassessment of Hakka identity in the global and transnational contexts Leo gives fresh insights into concepts such as ethnicity identity Han Chineseness overseas Chinese and migration in relation to Hakka identity Globalization transnationalism deterritorialization and migration drive the rapid transformation and reformation of Hakka identity to the point of no return Dehakalization through cultural adaptation or genetic transfer has created an elastic identity in the global Hakka and different kinds of Hakka communities around the world Jessieca Leo convincingly shows that the concept of being Hakka in the twenty first century is better referred to as Hakkaness a quality determined by lifestyle and personal choices

Among the Chinese tradition long resisted the idea of migration In practice however there were many layers of adaptation to different circumstances The Hakka have been exceptional in having always been conscious of their migratory successes This book explores with great sensitivity how Hakka history outside China influences the way they respond to the new global environment Combining careful scholarship with self discovery Jessieca Leo captures the processes by which one group of Chinese became migrants who consider migration as normal Her fascinating and original work takes the study of the Hakka to a higher level and offers fresh insights for understanding how other migratory Chinese are transforming tradition today Professor Wang Gungwu National University of Singapore

A Chinese Melting Pot Elizabeth Lominska Johnson,Graham E. Johnson,2019-08-05 Drawing on almost fifty years of research and first hand experience Elizabeth Lominska Johnson and Graham E Johnson have produced a masterpiece of ethnography a fine grained study of the transformation of a rural district into a chaotic industrial and now post industrial city Their work has implications far beyond its specific location scholars of history anthropology and sociology urban planning ethnomusicology women s studies political science ethnic relations and China studies in general will all find it meaningful Tsuen Wan was incorporated into colonial Hong Kong in 1898 The original inhabitants were Hakka who were guaranteed land rights which were central to later developments After the Japanese war the town was overwhelmed by vast numbers of immigrants fleeing civil war and revolution seeking employment in rapidly developing industries The newcomers were welcomed as tenants but in the absence of firm planning guidelines their number far exceeded the town s capacity to house and accommodate them The original inhabitants were firmly rooted in villages and elaborate kinship organizations the immigrants similarly relied on voluntary associations to help them face the many challenges that change brought into their lives Over time the government became more interventionist and developed Tsuen Wan as the first planned new town in Hong Kong s New Territories In recent years the culture of the original inhabitants has been diluted and differences among immigrants have diminished as all have assumed a general Hong Kong identity I have no doubt that this is an important book It covers a large number of topics that will intrigue sociologists anthropologists political scientists and historians who work on developing societies The book can be easily mined for data and comparative ethnography on a wide range of subjects from family organization to styles of leadership For scholars focusing on Chinese society this is a must read James Watson Harvard University The authors show us the dynamic interactions between tradition and modernity in Tsuen Wan s everyday life during the time when the New Town was undergoing rapid industrialization They give us a comprehensive account of the social development of the villages in the area taking us on a historical tour filled with surprises and excitement Sidney Cheung The Chinese University of Hong Kong Passionate Impressions in Love's Reflection Cherie Leigh,2020-12-07 It becomes obvious to anyone who gets to know me that I am a hopeless romantic I am not sure what instigated my sentimentality over love and romance but I have an affinity for all things that exhibit the beautiful qualities of passion The incredible holding power of love should not be taken for granted even as it can either profoundly entice or greatly elude The full effects of love s intensity move me with deep appreciation Some may say that I live in a fantasy world with my notions about romantic love but I don t let that bother me I just hop on my magical unicorn and ride off into the sunset I use my poetry to express intensity of emotions whether it be to entice delight mystify enlighten ache or touch Sometimes even through love s painful experiences there can be profound beauty taken from it that leaves lasting impressions For love in all its reflections has much to teach us about its purpose as the most powerful force in existence Since the beginning of time as we know it it has lived and breathed its testimony serving to inspire This collection of poetry came together for publication from encouragement from friends and fellow peer poets who believe in me I have always enjoyed writing but the past few years have been pivotal times of creativity I have changed from a woman seeking deliverance from pain to a woman experiencing inexplicable passion The obsession of love has become an innate part of my personality that needs to express itself in words I guess you could say I am smitten about anything written about love My hope is for the readers of my poetry to experience an emotional connection or perhaps find release through my various themes of love Some of my love poems take on a tone of spirituality while others embrace aspects of sensuality But all show phases and faces of love in need of expression For as mysterious as love can be it always makes its presence known in one form or another with unmistakable impact Welcome to my world of Passionate Impressions in Love s Reflection
