Mom, I'm Bored! Janet Fawcett Higginson,Vicki Landis Wiatt,1985 Mom Entitled CCP Berry,2025-06-22 She began life in a Japanese prison camp in Indonesia a child shaped by hunger fear and silence After the war she was uprooted first to the Netherlands a country she had never seen but was told to call home and then again to Canada where survival meant starting over once more Each move left invisible scars building a woman who carried both beauty and unhealed wounds Mom Entitled is a memoir of that complicated woman adored impossible and emotionally unreachable Her best friend later revealed that she had once been given a diagnosis of borderline personality disorder but she never pursued it At the time I thought of her instead as an emotionally immature parent not narcissistic because she could be deeply caring but caught in painful cycles of love and withdrawal generosity and volatility She was the ugly duckling who grew into a beauty and bellydance became her passion and her revenge against sisters who once mocked her It was both her freedom and her armour a way of reclaiming herself in a world that had taken so much The book traces how war trauma does not stop with one generation It shows how the psychological weight of uprooting from Indonesia to the Netherlands to Canada seeped into family life shaping children as much as it had shaped her Silence sudden shifts and the need to survive became the language of our home And yet with distance what remains for me is not anger but empathy Four months after writing I see her less as the impossible figure of my childhood and more as a survivor of impossible circumstances Mom Entitled closes not in bitterness but in recognition of a woman who endured who danced and who carried silence and sadness she could never escape The Jewish Mothers' Hall of Fame Fred A. Bernstein,2011-02-09 Twenty five fascinating revealing interviews with the mothers of twenty five high achieving Jewish people including the mothers of Stephen Spielberg ex convict Abbie Hoffman Nobel Medalist Rosalyn Yalow and more Like other mothers in the book Clara who died recently exemplified a life of hard work and sacrifice as well as worry about her child when a teacher told her Rosalyn was a genius I never met the man Einstein but I heard he was a little peculiar The author says Leah Adler mother of film director Steven Spielberg was the funniest person he d ever met and readers will agree With obvious love and pride she kvetches about bringing up a peculiar son I didn t know what the hell he was There are reports on rock stars a lawyer playwright and other achievers and at least two people more notorious than famous porn film star Harry Reems and yuppie ex convict Abbie Hoffman Redbook ,1961 The magazine for young adults varies Mothers and Food Florence Pasche Guignard,Tanya Cassidy,2016 This collection adds to scholarship on gender and food by replacing ignored or silenced maternal voices at the center of the inquiry From multidisciplinary perspectives this volume explores the roles mothers play in the producing purchasing preparing and serving of food to their own families and to their communities in a variety of contexts By examining cultural representations of the relationships between feeding and parenting in diverse media and situations these contributions highlight the tensions in which mothers get entangled They show mothers agency or lack thereof in negotiating the environmental material and economic reality of their feeding care work while upholding other ideals of taste nutrition health and fitness shaped by cultural norms The diverse issues addressed in this volume include breastfeeding and infant feeding as food work the monitoring of restrictive diets the religious cultural and economic politics of food and the gender class and race bias in current media as well as authoritative discourses about mothers often powerless responsibility of their own and their family s health Maternal strategies deployed to cope with some of the local consequences of global food systems such as food insecurity arising from situations of war climate change and poverty both in the economic North and in the global South are also analyzed in the volume The contributors to Mothers and Food go beyond the normative discourses of health and nutrition experts and beyond the idealistic images that are part of marketing strategies They explore what really drives mothers to maintain or change their family s foodways for better or for worse paying a particular attention to how this shapes their maternal identity Questioning the motto according to which people are what they eat the chapters in this volume show that mothers cannot be categorized simply by how they feed themselves and their family

Someone's in the Kitchen with Mama Young Women's Christian Association (Riverside, Calif.), 1985 To Mom Helen Exley, 1978 Children describe their mothers and characterize the mother child relationship Lessons from Mama Joan Walker Page, 2021-11-30 It s been said that values are caught more than taught When Polly Shivers was diagnosed with cancer in 2006 she quietly maintained Well we re supposed to bloom where we are planted Mama s words matched her actions She knew that her six children would repeat what she did more than what she said An orphan adopted into her forever family as a toddler Mama s life permeated gratefulness Mama knew what loneliness felt like and she invested in the lives of others reaping great benefits Snapshots of twelve of the many lessons learned from my Mama are encapsulated

here along with journal entries from both Mama and the author Joan Walker Page number five Be inspired as you read the priceless pieces of this family s life lovingly put together That Special Someone Gail Jarrow,1985 Freedom North J. Theoharis,K. Woodard,2016-03-05 The civil rights movement occupies a prominent place in popular thinking and scholarly work on post 1945 U S history Yet the dominant narrative of the movement remains that of a nonviolent movement born in the South during the 1950s that emerged triumphant in the early 1960s only to be derailed by the twin forces of Black Power and white backlash when it sought to move outside the South after 1965 African American protest and political movements outside the South appear as ancillary and subsequent to the real movement in the South despite the fact that black activism existed in the North Midwest and West in the 1940s and persisted well into the 1970s This book brings together new scholarship on black social movements outside the South to rethink the civil rights narrative and the place of race in recent history Each chapter focuses on a different location and movement outside the South revealing distinctive forms of U S racism according to place and the varieties of tactics and ideologies that community members used to attack these inequalities to show that the civil rights movement was indeed a national movement for racial justice and liberation
