Textiles Through The Ages:

Textiles Through the Ages Ruth Barnes, Emma Dick, Jon Thompson, 2002 This booklet is intended to illustrate the history of textiles and weaving through the centuries by bringing together some key objects from the Ashmolean Museum's many collections The oldest objects tell us about the early history of the fibres used by weavers and how different textile techniques developed and spread in the ancient world The later objects not arranged in any strict sequence show how textiles were used in society to indicate rank and status and how they were transported from one culture to another sometimes over great distances to become both functional and luxury items or occasionally exotic articles of high fashion

Murray Thomas, 2014-06-19 This book traces the development of Haiti's combined Vodou Christian religion from 1500 to the present and explains how this combination of distinct faiths coalesces in a coherent belief system What are the historical reasons for the popularity of two contradictory worldviews in Haiti Vodou and Catholicism What elements of Vodou and Catholicism are alike and how are they drastically different What is the connection between indigenous African religions and Vodou And why has religion in Haiti evidenced an accelerating rate of change in recent decades Roots of Haiti's Vodou Christian Faith African and Catholic Origins answers these questions and more in its examination of the highly unique and often misunderstood religious practices in Haiti Reaching back half a millennium to the European conquest of the island of Haiti author R Murray Thomas inspects the origins and nature of these two competing and complementary religious traditions the traditional African faiths brought by the slaves who were imported to Haiti to labor in the fields and mines and the Catholicism promoted often violently by Spanish and French colonial authorities Following a historical background the subsequent chapters focus on the organization of Haitian religion spirits creation belief causes and ceremonies maxims and tales symbols and sacred objects
