That Uncertain Feeling:

That Uncertain Feeling Kingsley Amis,1958      New Approaches to Ernst Lubitsch Brigitte Peucker,Ido Lewit,2025-10-01 This exciting collection of unpublished essays on Ernst Lubitsch addresses multiple gaps in scholarly and critical engagement with the director His understudied early German films shed light on Jewish culture on the relation of comedy to gender and the influence of theatre on his filmmaking The popular historical epics brought Lubitsch an invitation to Hollywood in 1922 There Lubitsch helped develop the film musical and notably contributed to the genre of Hollywood romantic comedy The well known scholars film historians archivists and theorists whose essays appear in this volume expand our knowledge of the set designers actors directors and members of the emigr community who contributed to Lubitsch s vibrant films An emphasis on the role of material objects opens up a new dimension of critical engagement with the director Light is shed on neglected films and the antifascist dimension of his oeuvre brings his political stance clearly to light As these essays make clear Lubitsch s cinema is elusive and deserving of our close attention      Understanding Kingsley Amis Merritt

Moseley,1993      Ernst Lubitsch Scott Eyman,2000-11-30 When movie lovers speak of the Lubitsch touch they refer to a singular sense of style and taste humor and humanity that suffused the films of one of Hollywood s greatest directors In this first ever full length biography of Ernst Lubitsch Scott Eyman takes readers behind the scenes of such classic films as Trouble in Paradise 1932 The Merry Widow 1934 Bluebeard s Eighth Wife 1938 Ninotchka 1939 The Shop around the Corner 1940 To Be or Not to Be 1942 and Heaven Can Wait 1943 which together constitute one of the most important and influential bodies of work in Hollywood Eyman examines both the films Lubitsch crafted and the life he lived his great successes and his overwhelming anxieties to create an indelible portrait of Hollywood s Golden Age and one of its most respected artists

How Did Lubitsch Do It? Joseph McBride,2018-06-26 Orson Welles called Ernst Lubitsch 1892 1947 a giant whose talent and originality are stupefying Jean Renoir said He invented the modern Hollywood Celebrated for his distinct style and credited with inventing the classic genre of the Hollywood romantic comedy and helping to create the musical Lubitsch won the admiration of his fellow directors including Alfred Hitchcock and Billy Wilder whose office featured a sign on the wall asking How would Lubitsch do it Despite the high esteem in which Lubitsch is held as well as his unique status as a leading filmmaker in both Germany and the United States today he seldom receives the critical attention accorded other major directors of his era How Did Lubitsch Do It restores Lubitsch to his former stature in the world of cinema Joseph McBride analyzes Lubitsch s films in rich detail in the first in depth critical study to consider the full scope of his work and its evolution in both his native and adopted lands McBride explains the Lubitsch Touch and shows how the director challenged American attitudes toward romance and sex Expressed obliquely through sly innuendo Lubitsch s risqu sophisticated continental humor engaged the viewer s intelligence while circumventing the strictures of censorship in such masterworks as The Marriage Circle Trouble in Paradise Design for Living Ninotchka The Shop Around the Corner and To Be or Not to Be

McBride's analysis of these films brings to life Lubitsch's wit and inventiveness and offers revealing insights into his working methods

Knowledge, Reading and Culture Matthew Kelly, 2026-04-13 Knowledge Reading and Culture Studies in Information Practice is an interdisciplinary inquiry focusing on four decades of work by the South African information scientist Emeritus Professor Archie Dick. The edited volume brings together library information and history specialists to engage with a number of Professor Dick's areas of research: focus on the culture and philosophy of information, especially with regard to questions of epistemology, information freedom, how censorship and media concentration affects political agency, reading and publishing cultures, especially in colonial and postcolonial contexts, and focuses on how these affect information education for diverse multicultural and cosmopolitan communities. How our understanding of true belief is justified at the level of classification, indexing, curation, and publishing have become significant issues in the transition to digital environments. This work seeks to harness a range of insights relating to the modes of knowledge representation in information spaces and to uncover how these impact globally significant repertoires of agency, with a special focus on how the mediation of reading and access to public knowledge is both a site of resistance and appropriation.
