Beginning Self-Study Research Brandon M. Butler, Kristen H. Gregory, Mark M. Diacopoulos, Angela P. Branyon, 2026-01-07 This book is an essential guide for novice and experienced self study researchers offering practical insight into the lived experience of conducting self study research Unlike abstract methodologies self study is embodied through practice and often learned collaboratively Because it resists traditional instruction newcomers frequently ask S STEP researchers How does one learn self study This recurring question highlights the need for accessible frameworks and processes to support emerging scholars By addressing this gap the book equips readers with foundational tools to navigate the complexities of self study and fosters deeper understanding of how to learn through reflective inquiry and shared exploration Each chapter is supported by existing literature on self study research as well as examples from the authors own experiences and the experiences of others The inclusion of prompts activities and recommended resources in each chapter enhances the learning process With this book as a guide we hope that S STEP researchers will individually and collaboratively learn how to effectively conduct self study research and contribute meaningfully to the scholarly community by making their self study research public Fostering Critical Pedagogy in the ELA Classroom Meghan E. Barnes, Lucy Arnold, Heather Coffey, 2026-04-07 This book presents the story of the Critical English Educator Collaborative CEEC a teacher guided informal learning community focused on supporting prospective and practicing English language arts ELA teachers understandings of critical pedagogy in order to demonstrate and foster critical pedagogy among ELA teachers Over the course of one academic year three ELA teacher educators at a large public university in the southeastern US guided a cohort of novice ELA teachers in monthly virtual conversations relative to the challenges facing public school teachers today Prior to these monthly meetings participants engaged with a text book chapter journal article and podcast related to the teaching of English in middle and secondary schools post Covid Throughout the year participants challenged and supported one another on social political and curricular issues This book invites readers into the context for CEEC and shares the experiences of ELA teachers engaging in critical pedagogy while offering pathways for those interested in developing this kind of collaborative community Because CEEC operates in a liminal space it is a transformational place where participants can be vulnerable and feel safe to share their concerns experiences and successes without fear of retribution from school administrators parents or faculty Thus CEEC functions as a powerful space for prospective and practicing teachers to learn from and with one another and offers insight into how this unique collaborative relationship fosters collective growth This book gives prospective teachers practicing teachers and teacher educators in English language arts education the tools to engage in the process of becoming critical educators PMP Exam Prep For Dummies Crystal J.
