A Zebra Named Zion Ben Smith,2020-05-16 This is a simple story designed to provoke discussion about mental health in primary school aged children There was a common consensus for a long time that children could not become depressed that they were somehow immune to this condition We now know that this is false children experience pain and sadness the same as everyone else This books is about embracing sadness as part of the journey Join Zion for the adventure

Zanzibar The Zebra Felicia Law,2020-10-27 Many children will be familiar with the zebra from visits to zoos and TV documentaries on African wildlife However here are some interesting facts about the animal that may arise from reading the story It is generally believed that the zebra has stripes to help it camouflage itself from lions in tall grass Although this seems odd since grass isn t white or black lions are colour blind so this is probably true As zebras move in large herds it is also possible that a number of zebras standing close together look like one large animal and make it more difficult for the lion to pick out a single zebra to attack Zebras have excellent eyesight and like many animals they can see in colour Copyright 2020 Kidoo Media Inc Published byAll rights reserved
