of Ida Johnson, 1978 - Posters Theatre Passe Muraille Archives, Ida Johnson, 1978 The True Story of Ida Johnson Sharon Riis, 1976 This is a story of ordinary people and the typical life of Ida who could be almost any Canadian woman

The True Story of Ida Johnson/ by Sharon Riis ; Directed by Cynthia Grant, 1979 - Reviews and Articles Theatre Passe Muraille Archives (University of Guelph), 1979 Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, 2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide Women, Collective Creation, and Devised Performance

Kathryn Mederos Syssoyeva, Scott Proudfit, 2016-08-29 This book explores the role and centrality of women in the development of collaborative theatre practice alongside the significance of collective creation and devising in the development of the modern theatre Tracing a web of women theatremakers in Europe and North America this book explores the connections between early twentieth century collective theatre practices such as workers theatre and the dramatic play movement and the subsequent spread of theatrical devising Chapters investigate the work of the Settlement Houses total theatre in 1920s France the mid century avant garde and New Left collectives the nomadic performances of Europe s transnational theatre troupes street theatre protests and contemporary devising In so doing the book further elucidates a history of modern theatre begun in A History of Collective Creation 2013 and Collective Creation in Contemporary Performance 2013 in which the seemingly marginal and disparate practices of collective creation and devising are revealed as central and women theatremakers revealed as progenitors of these practices Mothers and Other Clowns (Routledge Revivals) Magdalene Redekop, 2014-03-14 First published in 1992 this is the first study of the work of Alice Munro to focus on her obsession with mothering and to relate it to the hallucinatory quality of her magic realism A bizarre collection of clowning mothers parade across the pages of Munro s fiction playing practical jokes performing stunts and dressing in disguises that recycle vintage literary images Magdalene Redekop studies this with the aim of gaining increased understanding of Munro s evolving comic vision Nightwood Theatre Shelley Scott, 2010 Nightwood Theatre is the longest running and most influential feminist theatre company in Canada Since 1979 the company has produced works by Canadian women providing new opportunities for women theatre artists It has also been the home company for some of the biggest names in Canadian theatre such as Ann Marie MacDonald In Nightwood Theatre Scott describes the company s journey toward defining itself as a feminist theatre establishment highlighting its artistic leadership based on its relevance to diverse communities of women She also traces Nightwood's relationship with the media and places the theatre in an international context by comparing its history to that of like companies in the U K and the U S

The Literary History of Saskatchewan David Carpenter, Kelly-Anne Riess, 2018-10-01 Volume 3 shifts its focus to Regina's literary culture and to the coming generation of younger writers but it continues to examine the best work from Saskatchewan The impact the relevance the illuminations of our best writers work tend to move well beyond the borders of our province This work transcends the regional sources of its inspiration Just as Marilynne Robinson has much to say to Canadians about the disruptions and the graces of family life Dianne Warren has much to say to Americans about the omnipresence of the past the shadows it casts on people's lives in the present Many of our best books are nurtured by the history and the life of this province but they spring into literature roughly in proportion to their applications and their immemorial responses to the human condition

The Cambridge Guide to Women's Writing in English Lorna Sage, 1999-09-30 This Guide aims to consolidate and epitomise the re-reading of women's writing that has gone on in the last twenty five years This is an opportunity for stock taking a timely project when so much writing has been rediscovered reclaimed and republished There are entries on writers on individual texts and on general terms genres and movements all printed in a single alphabetical sequence The earliest written documents in medieval English the visionary writings of Julian of Norwich and Margery Kempe are covered in an historical and geographical sweep that takes us up to the present day The book reflects the spread of literacy the history of colonisation and the development of post colonial cultures using and changing the English language The entries are written by contributors from all the countries covered The result is a work of reference with a unique feeling for the vitality wealth and diversity of women's writing

Mavericks Aritha Van Herk, 2010-01-12 The fifth title in our provincial histories series Mavericks is an idiosyncratic and episodic history of what is arguably Canada's most unconventional province From mapmakers to ranchers Stampede Wrestling to Stockwell Day acclaimed writer Aritha van Herk brings the drama and combative beauty of this irascible province to stunning life van Herk's portrait of her home province embraces all its extremes from deadly and spectacular weather to dinosaur graveyards and from oil gushers and geysers to barnstorming social reformers and political haymakers Bronc riders of boom and bust Alberta's people are a beguiling mixture of opinionated extremists hardy pioneers and gentle sinners Alberta is a province that most Canadians simply don't understand the province most Canadians love to hate It is regarded as a land of reckless redneck and ignorant individualists But it is also the province where the Famous Five fought the landmark Person's Case giving Canadian women the same status as men in the eyes of the law a province that truly believes in free speech Albertans tolerate in their midst people whose extreme views on any manner of subjects would make them outcasts elsewhere And Albertans practice the creed of western neighbourliness giving assiduously to charity and always lending a hand where help is needed They are a tough tender bunch squinting into the wind of determined difference

If you re an Albertan you ll recognize yourself and your home in this book If you re not an Albertan this book will be an education for you Mavericks will open your eyes to the real Alberta as she was and is A Mazing Space Shirley C.
