Truth Gathering:

Reconciling Truths Kim Stanton,2022-01-15 Hundreds of commissions of inquiry have been struck in Canada since before Confederation but many of their recommendations have never been implemented Reconciling Truths explores the role and implications of commissions such as Canada's Truth and Reconciliation Commission and the National Inquiry into Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls and particularly their limits and possibilities in an era of reconciliation with Indigenous peoples Whether it is a public inquiry truth commission or royal commission the chosen leadership and processes fundamentally affect its ability to achieve its mandate Kim Stanton provides examples and in depth critical analysis of these factors to offer practical guidance on how to improve the odds that recommendations will be implemented As a forthright examination of the institutional design of public inquiries Reconciling Truths affirms their potential to create a dialogue about issues of public importance that can prepare the way for policy development and shifts the dominant Canadian narrative over time

Divine Teaching and the Way of the World Samuel Fleischacker,2011-04-21 Samuel Fleischacker defends what the Enlightenment called revealed religion religions that regard a certain text or oral teaching as sacred as wholly authoritative over one's life At the same time he maintains that revealed religions stand in danger of corruption or fanaticism unless they are combined with secular scientific practices and a secular morality The first two parts of Divine Teaching and the Way of the World argue that the cognitive and moral practices of a society should prescind from religious commitments they constitute a secular way of the world to adapt a phrase from the Jewish tradition allowing human beings to work together regardless of their religious differences But the way of the world breaks down when it comes to the question of what we live for and it is this that revealed religions can illumine Fleischacker first suggests that secular conceptions of why life is worth living are often poorly grounded before going on to explore what revelation is how it can answer the question of worth better than secular worldviews do and how the revealed and way of the world elements of a religious tradition can be brought together
