Amanda Prowse, 2022-09-06 Amanda Prowse has built a bestselling career on the lives of fictional women Now she turns the pen on her own life I guess the first question to ask is what kind of woman am I Well you know those women who saunter into a room immaculately coiffed and primped from head to toe If you look behind her you ll see me From her childhood where there was no blueprint for success to building a career as a bestselling novelist against all odds Amanda Prowse explores what it means to be a woman in a world where popularity slimness beauty and youth are currency and how she overcame all of that to forge her own path to happiness Sometimes heartbreaking often hilarious and always entirely relatable Prowse details her early struggles with self esteem and how she coped with the frustrating expectations others had of how she should live Most poignantly she delves into her toxic relationship with food the hardest addiction she has ever known and how she journeyed out the other side One of the most candid memoirs you re ever likely to read Women Like Us provides welcome insight into how it is possible against the odds to overcome insecurity body consciousness and the ubiquitous imposter syndrome to find happiness and success from a woman who s done it all and then some On Our Own
