Woman Of Rome:

The Twilight of Rome's Papal Nobility Ugo Boncompagni Ludovisi (1856–1935), 2025-03-11 Today the Ludovisi district is one of Rome's most luxurious neighborhoods home to famous restaurants and some of the most expensive shops in the city. But it was once private property part of an eighty-six-acre villa owned by the Boncompagni Ludovisi, an ancient noble family with close ties to the papacy. The story of how the palazzo fell out of the family's hands reveals the tremendous social upheavals that Italy underwent following its mid-nineteenth-century unification. First privately published in 1921, The Twilight of Rome's Papal Nobility provides an intimate look at a family who grew up accustomed to almost unimaginable wealth, power, and glamour. A descendant of two popes, Ugo Boncompagni Ludovisi recounts the life story of his mother, Agnese, who was raised in a palace full of priceless artwork, including pieces by Caravaggio and Michelangelo. We get a window into Agnese's private life: her girlhood, marriage, and raising of several children, as her public life becomes increasingly tumultuous amid the family's struggles to retain its property. A tender elegy to a bygone era, Boncompagni Ludovisi's story provides a unique perspective on Italian history and Rome's urban redevelopment. Female Authority and Holiness in Early and Medieval Christianity Maria Dell'Isola, 2025-05-06 This collective volume investigates the connection between women's holiness and the notion of time from a diachronic perspective. By looking at temporality as intertwined with the construction of social and gendered roles, the volume analyzes narratives related to the varying articulation of female authority considered against the wider background of Christian ideals of holiness between early Christianity and Byzantium. The Woman of Rome Alberto Moravia, 1959 The Woman of Rome Alberto Moravia, 1999 The glitter and cynicism of Rome under Mussolini provide the background of what is probably Alberto Moravia's best and best-known novel, The Woman of Rome. It's the story of Adriana, a simple girl with no fortune but her beauty who models naked for a painter, accepts gifts from men, and could never quite identify the moment when she traded her private dream of home and children for the life of a prostitute. One of the very few novels of the twentieth century which can be ranked with the work of Dostoevsky, The Woman of Rome also tells the stories of the tortured university student Giacomo, a failed revolutionary who refuses to admit his love for Adriana; of the sinister figure of Astarita, the Secret Police officer obsessed with Adriana; and of the coarse and brutal criminal Sonzogno who treats Adriana as his private property. Within this story of passion and betrayal, Moravia calmly strips away the pride and arrogance, hiding the corrupt heart of Italian Fascism. Transmissions of Memory Patrizia Sambuco, 2018-03-19 Transmissions of Memory: Echoes, Traumas, and Nostalgia in Post-World War II Italian Culture discusses cultural products—films, poetry, fiction, architectural buildings, autobiographical writing, and social media—to individuate through them the dynamics of memory. The field of analysis is Italian culture from World War II to the contemporary times, and the volume has a gendered approach, one of its focuses offering an encompassing view on cultural memory and highlighting the similarities between gendered revisitation and revisitation of the past. The volume is divided into three sections: cultural transmissions fractured memories and nostalgia In the chapters herewith the study of memory through these forms hints at a sense of transformation and often enrichment or resilience individual or collective that values more the present and the future rather than the past The History of the Woman's Club Movement in America Jane Cunningham Croly,1898
