Women Explorers:

Women Explorers Julia Cummins,2015-12 Introduces inspiring women whose passions for exploration made them push the boundaries including Nellie Cashman Annie Smith Peck and Delia Julia Denning Akeley Women Explorers in Asia Margo McLoone,1997 Briefly describes the lives and travels of five women who explored such places as Tibet Iran and the steppes of Russia Women Explorers in North and South America Margo McLoone,1997 Summarizes the lives and accomplishments of five women who were explorers in North and South America Women Explorers in Africa Margo McLoone,1997 Summarizes the lives and accomplishments of five women who were explorers in Africa A World of Her Own Michael Elsohn Ross,2014-03-01 The stories of two dozen fascinating female explorers from a wide range of eras cultures races and economic backgrounds are profiled in this entertaining and educational resource Each of the women profiled overcame many obstacles to satisfy her curiosity and passions including Eleanor Creesy who was a ship s navigator in the 1800s Kate Jackson an insatiable investigator of venomous snakes whose work has led her to remote Africa and Latin America and Constanza Ceruti the world s only female high elevation archaeologist who carries out excavations on the Earth s highest peaks in dangerously thin air and subzero temperatures Offering not only important historical context but also original interviews with many intriguing modern explorers this who s who of women explorers will provide inspiration to today s young women interested in nature science and a physical challenge Women Explorers in Polar Regions Margo McLoone,1997 Briefly describes the lives and travels of five women who explored the polar regions Extraordinary Women Explorers Frances Rooney,2005-01-01 A thirst for adventure a deep desire to push themselves beyond their comfort zones and an innate curiosity about the world and its peoples drive the biographies of the ten women explorers profiled here As explorers they bring skills in cartography geography history anthropology botany photography linguistics and writing to their travels Their stories begin with Sacagawea a Native guide in the Lewis and Clark expedition in 1805 and end in the present with Mattie McNair and Denise Martin the Canadian leaders of Arctic and Antarctic expeditions These are stories of women who dared to push beyond the safety of their own communities in order to live their dreams Women Explorers Julia Cummins,2012-02-16 Meet ten inspiring women whose passions for exploration made them push the boundaries Though most people have heard of explorers like Henry Hudson and Christopher Columbus few have heard names like Nellie Cashman and Annie Smith Peck Unfortunately most of the brave women explorers have never made it into history books because they lived in times when it was taboo for women to go off on their own Luckily the daring women in this book didn t let those taboos slow them down as they climbed treacherous mountains studied Aboriginal cultures and lived with Pygmy tribes With engaging text and bold illustrations Women Explorers will finally properly introduce these adventurous women to the world The Girl Explorers Jayne Zanglein,2021-03-02 Never tell a woman where she doesn t belong In 1932 Roy Chapman Andrews president of the men only Explorers Club boldly stated to hundreds of female students at Barnard College that women are not adapted to exploration and that women and exploration do not mix He obviously didn't know a thing about either The Girl Explorers is the inspirational and untold story of the founding of the Society of Women Geographers an organization of adventurous female world explorers and how key members served as early advocates for human rights and paved the way for today's women scientists by scaling mountains exploring the high seas flying across the Atlantic and recording the world through film sculpture and literature Discover the untold narratives of fearless female adventurers who defied societal norms and ventured into uncharted territories as they crisscross continents daringly explore remote landscapes and conquer the skies From the breathtaking expeditions in the dense Amazon rainforest to the heart-pounding aviation feats that broke barriers this book sheds light on the remarkable achievements of trailblazing explorers The Girl Explorers celebrates courage resilience and the indomitable spirit of these pioneers who paved the way for future generations Immerse yourself in their extraordinary experiences from the breathtaking discoveries of hidden civilizations to the thrilling encounters with exotic wildlife Through meticulous research and riveting storytelling this book brings to life the remarkable journeys of these women revealing the hardships they faced the victories they achieved and the lasting impact they left on the world Join us as we celebrate their extraordinary legacy The Girl Explorers is an inspiring examination of forgotten women from history perfect for fans of bestselling narrative history books like The Radium Girls The Woman Who Smashed Codes and Rise of the Rocket Girls Women Explorers Sharon M. Hannon, 2007 From the South Pole to the Sahara women as avidly as their male counterparts have sought adventure around the globe Not always accepted more often than not these female explorers have had to struggle against restrictive societal mores in addition to the challenges presented by the deserts mountains and other wild places that beckoned to them Women Who Dare Women Explorers highlights the achievements of several extraordinary women documenting their inspiring stories with dozens of historical photographs Women Explorers of the Mountains Margo McLoone, 1999-08 Discusses the lives and accomplishments of five women who traveled and explored the mountainous regions of the world in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries

Women Explorers in North America and South America Margo McLoone, 1997-04-01 Each book in this unique series takes readers on a journey through the lives and discoveries of five women explorers Dynamic and inspirational these books detail real-life adventures such as fending off crocodiles in the African jungle and trekking across the frozen plains of Siberia

Women in Public Life American Academy of Political and Social Science, 1914 Women of Today Mrs. Ida Clyde Gallagher Clarke, 1924 Journal of the American Association of University Women, 1928 Women Explorers Ellen Rodger, 2020 There's no doubt that women have always been a part of journeys of discovery from Viking women crossing the ocean to new lands to trade caravans bringing goods through Africa But there is slim mention of them in most history books This exciting book digs up the history of the bold women who dared to travel all over the world including multilingual Isabelle Eberhardt who obeyed her destiny and traveled through the Algerian desert dressed as a man and adventurous aviatrix

Bessie Coleman the first African American woman to hold a pilot's license Women Adventurers, 1750-1900 Mary Frech McVicker, 2008 This biographical dictionary provides an extensive guide to prominent female travelers of the late 18th and early 19th centuries British women make up the largest portion of the book's focus these particular adventurers being backed in many cases by family money scientific inquiry and the ready availability of British sea travel Organized alphabetically by the adventurers last names each entry features biographical information including the woman's family background her educational history and a brief summary of her world travels Bulletin of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs ,1930 The Scrap Book ,1907 On Top of the World Luree Miller, 1984-10-31 An astonishing tale of perseverance Wonderful insight into 19th century Tibet A moving tale of adventure and discovery In the late 1800s when women were bound by both cumbersome clothing and strict Victorian morals a small band of astonishing women explorers burst forth to claim the adventurous life What drew the five profiled in this book three British one American one French was Tibet then the ultimate in exploration Nina Mazuchelli organized a small expedition urging the party on when they were lost on a glacier Annie Taylor a reckless romantic missionary in China knew her life was in danger the moment she crossed into Tibet Esabella Bird Bishop sickly while at home was always robust on her adventures she was nearly 60 when she went to Tibet Fanny Bullock Workman plowed her way up Himalaya and Karakoram mountains saying any woman could do so Alexandra David Neel at 56 trekked for eight months through tropical lowlands and snow covered passes with only a backpack and a begging bowl Even by today's standards these women's accomplishments are remarkable
