Rather this commercial industry seeks to extract the maximum value from its customers through exploitative relationships that benefit especially class privileged men Through ethnography interviews and historical analysis Radhakrishnan individual autonomy and independence While describing the historical and incomplete transition of Bangladesh s

Huang concludes that market driven interventions fail to grasp the sociopolitical and cultural contexts in which poverty and gender inequality are embedded and sustained Politics of the Possible Maitrayee Mukhopadhyay, Gerard Steehouwer,Franz Wong,2006 What actually happens to organizations during gender and organization change endeavors

This book takes an in depth look at the experience of seven Novib partner organizations in the Middle East and South Asia who undertook the challenge of the Gender Focus Programme It recounts their analysis of their organization and the route they chose to follow The book presents field experiences of managing the politically sensitive agenda of promoting gender equality in the NGOs and negotiating the contradictions between using Organizational Development tools and promoting gender equality In doing so it shows how organizational change for gender equality is an integral part of gender mainstreaming processes As a decade of evidence suggests gender mainstreaming is vulnerable to becoming technocratic and ineffective These seven organizations unable to separate entirely the integral change process from their external work as NGOs experiences a spillover of gender justice concerns into their work in the field with a variety of program results

NGOs in India Patrick Kilby,2010-10-21 By examining how NGOs operate in Southern India in the early 2000 s this book discusses the challenges faced by small local NGOs in the uncertain times of changing aid dynamics The key findings focus on what empowerment means for Indian women and how NGO accountability to these groups is an important part of the empowerment being realised The notion of community empowerment in which the solidarity of a group can be a path to individual empowerment is discussed as well as analysing how empowerment can be a useful concept in development Based on case studies of 15 NGOs as well as in depth interviews with 80 women s self help groups the book highlights the key features of effective empowerment programs The author uses innovative statistical analysis tools to show how a key factor in empowerment of marginalised women is the accountability relationship between themselves and the supporting NGO The book goes on to discuss the ways that NGOs can work with communities in the future and recognises the limitations of a donor centric accountability framework It provides a useful contribution to studies on South Asia as well as Gender and Development Studies Introduction 1 Non Governmental Organisations in India 2 The work of NGOs in India SHGs and Women s Empowerment 3 Rural NGOs 4 Pune Waste picker program 5 Measuring Women s Empowerment 6 NGO Accountability 7 Conclusion Publisher s description Social Action ,2001 Economics and Governance of Nongovernmental Organizations in Bangladesh ,2006 Working Paper ,2003 Economic and Political Weekly ,2005-09 Donors NGOs, the State, and Their Clients in Bangladesh Mokbul Morshed Ahmad,2000 Canadian Social Work Review ,2005 Asia-Pacific Journal of Rural Development ,2001 Journal of Rural Development ,2007 The Radical Humanist ,2002 The Indian Journal of Social Work ,2003 Between Conformity and Resistance Petra Dannecker,2002 Sociological Bulletin Indian Sociological Society,2003
