Women In Development A Creative Role Denied:

Development Has a Woman's Face Krishna Ahojja-Patel, 2007 The richness of Krishna Ahojapatel's analysis of the connections between women and the economy comes from the diversity of her engagements as a UN policymaker, an academic and an activist Her analysis is therefore multidimensional It is not a historical work but captures four decades of changes in policies, paradigms and in women's lives It is rare to see such different strands come together in one person and one book Vandana Shiva Founder Director Research Foundation of Science Technology Ecology New Delhi Dignity and Daily Bread Swasti Mitter, Sheila Rowbotham, 2003-09-02 First published in 1993 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Women in Development Marja-Liisa Swantz, 1985-01-01 Routledge International Encyclopedia of Women Cheris Kramarae, Dale Spender, 2004-04-16 For a full list of entries and contributors sample entries and more visit the Routledge International Encyclopedia of Women website Featuring comprehensive global coverage of women's issues and concerns from violence and sexuality to feminist theory the Routledge International Encyclopedia of Women brings the field into the new millennium In over 900 signed A-Z entries from US and Europe Asia the Americas Oceania and the Middle East the women who pioneered the field from its inception collaborate with the new scholars who are shaping the future of women's studies to create the new standard work for anyone who needs information on women related subjects Women in Developing Countries Janet G. Townsend, 1988 Women's Rights, Human Rights J. S. Peters, Andrea Wolper, 2018-05-11 This comprehensive and important volume includes contributions by activists, journalists, lawyers and scholars from twenty one countries The essays map the directions the movement for women's rights is taking and will take in the coming decades and the concomitant transformation of prevailing notions of rights and issues They address topics such as the rapes in former Yugoslavia and efforts to see that a War Crimes Tribunal responds domestic violence trafficking of women into the sex trade the persecution of lesbians female genital mutilation and reproductive rights Gender and Development, 1995 New Books on Women and Feminism, 1986 Ufahamu, 1995 Feminist Knowledge as Critique and Construct, 1988 Gender, Family and Household in Tanzania Colin Creighton, Cuthbert K. Omari, 1995 The papers in the volume are designed to contribute to ongoing debates about changing patterns of gender, household and family relations in Tanzanian society In particular they aim to extend understanding of the nature and structure of households and the interrelationships between household organization and gender relations the coping strategies of households especially those of the poor or those coping with AIDS in the face of economic crisis and restructuring and the implications of these responses for the position of women The book is divided into three parts contextual studies 2 papers gender and the household 5 papers and gender, family and society 5 papers Verlagsangaben Commonwealth, 1984 Planning in Contemporary Africa Ambe J. Njoh, 2003 Why do authorities in post colonial African states continue to employ European or Western planning models What are the implications for different societal groups of adopting such models Several decades following independence this outstanding volume provides in depth empirical research to uncover the answers to such questions The book focuses in particular on Cameroon the only African country to have been colonized by three different European powers Germany Britain and France It discusses the nature of the state in peripheral capitalist countries and sets current planning and land use policies in their historical colonial and post colonial contexts The author then proceeds to examine key planning issues such as housing land ownership sustainable development environmental and waste management transportation infrastructure and gender In addition to analyzing the impact of colonialism and imperialism on the built environment in Cameroon in particular and sub Saharan Africa in general the book also addresses global issues about urbanism and will be particularly relevant to those interested in planning regional studies and development and development geography

Structural Adjustment and Gender, Empowerment Or Disempowerment Tanzania Gender Networking Programme,1994

Engendering African Social Sciences Ayesha Imam,Amina Mama,Fatou Sow,1997 This was one of the most pioneering works in the field of gender and social sciences in the African context and remains an authoritative text It is an extensively researched and forcefully argued study offering a critique and directions for gendering the social sciences in Africa The sixteen chapters cover methodological and epistemological questions and substantive issues in the various social science disciplines ranging from economics politics and history to sociology and anthropology Thirteen scholars contribute including the three distinguished women editors The translation which is edited from the English and newly introduced by the renowned feminist scholar Fatou Sow is an achievement itself an incursion into the notorious difficulties of translating what are notably Anglo Saxon concepts of sex and gender into the French language and distinctive academic environment of interpreting western concepts of feminism within the African environment as well as being an opportunity to revisit what deserves to become a classic text and reach a wider audience

Between Plan and Market Raimo Blom,Harri Melin,Jouko Nikula,1996 While the Baltic states continue to develop into free market economies these nation s new legal and political institutions are still in a process of formation Political organization is in a state of flux labor relations and labor markets are practically nonexistent These unusual conditions of change present challenging problems to the sociologist Unique in approach this book emphasizes techniques for merging systemic social and communal levels of analysis providing a coherent view in a difficult area of research It is argued that cyclical rather than linear concepts of change are the more fruitful in evaluating mechanisms of social transformation

Intersecting Places, Emancipatory Spaces Melinda Beth Robins,2001

Discussion Paper ,1992

Blood, Milk, and Death Marja L. Swantz,Salome Mjema,Zenya Wild,1995-03-23 Beginning with the myth of origin that joins every young Zaramo woman to her origins as she is initiated into the secrets of life and womanhood the book then provides us with an historical account of the Tanzanian coast around Dar es Salaam as a background to the persistence of the cultural institutions to which the reader is introduced Statements and narrations by Salome as a representative of the modern educated Zaramo people intersperse the author s descriptions of the rituals of womanhood of individual and social healing and of the ways conflict is symbolically manipulated and managed Rituals are seen in their vibrant role not as remnants of tradition but as means of handling encroaching external pressures on the community These pressures include commercialization of livelihood development thrust in the form of villagization or the ongoing process of losing land rights The book shows that a people will counteract the threat of social disintegration by overemphasizing their core values in an attempt to create strong communication forces and instruments of power A good introduction to contemporary African issues Third World women s studies and ethnographic anthropology East European Reliance on Technology Imports from the West Steven W. Popper, Rand Corporation, 1988 This report an overview of current East European reliance on technology imports from the West assesses the importance to the East Europeans of these imports The study develops a measure to provide a relative scale of reliance on Western imports for a sample of high technology commodities for each of the six East European members of the Council for Mutual Economic Assistance CMEA the Soviet Union and Yugoslavia from 1980 1984 The analysis indicates that 1 there is a great diversity in the degree of reliance on Western imports between countries and across commodities 2 the measure of Western import reliance generally declined during this period 3 the countries of Eastern Europe tend to rely on the West more for the less compressible higher technology goods included in the sample than for general machinery imports and they rely more on the CMEA than on the Soviet Union and 4 U S ability to unilaterally affect Western technology deliveries to Eastern Europe is limited Rand abstracts
