Gender and Memory in the Postmillennial Novels of Almudena Grandes Lorraine Ryan, 2021-04-21 Almudena Grandes is one of Spain's foremost women's writers having sold over 11 million copies of her episodios de una guerra interminable her six volume series that ranges from the Spanish Civil War to the democratic period the myriad prizes awarded to her 18 in total confirm her pre-eminence This book situates Grandes's novels within gendered philosophical and mnemonic theoretical concepts that illuminate hidden dimensions of her much studied work Lorraine Ryan considers and expands on existing critical work on Grandes's oeuvre proposing new avenues of interpretation and understanding She seeks to debunk the arguments of those who portray Grandes as the proponent of a sectarian eminently biased Republican memory by analysing the wide variety of gender and perpetrator memories that proliferate in her work The intersection of perpetrator memory with masculinity ecocriticism medical ethics and the child's perspectives confirms Grandes's nuanced engagement with Spanish memory culture Departing from a philosophical basis Ryan reconfigures the Republican victim in the novels as a vulnerable subject who attempts to flourish thus refuting the current critical opinion of the victim as overly empowered The new perspectives produced in this monograph do not aim to suggest that Grandes is an advocate of perpetrator memory rather it suggests that Grandes is committed to a more pluralistic idea of memory culture whereby her novels generate understanding of multiple victim perpetrator and gender memories an analysis that produces new and meaningful engagements with these novels Thus Ryan contends that Grandes's historical novels are infinitely more complex and nuanced than heretofore conceived

Norms of Dependency in Late Antique and Early Medieval Societies Martin Schermaier, Julia Winnebeck, Matthias Becher, 2025-06-02 Late antique and early medieval normative sources frequently employ Roman legal terminology to denote a person's legal inferiority and thus suggest the continued relevance of the concepts associated with these terms However it is far from clear to what extent the use of identical terminology actually indicates the similarity of social phenomena There is ample evidence of important changes regarding the rights and duties of enslaved persons and the development or emergence of other new forms of asymmetrical dependency This raises the question to what extent consistency in terminology and legal practice is actually an indicator of the stability of social structures Against this background a group of scholars of legal ecclesiastical and social history were invited to a conference at the BCDSS in March 2022 to scrutinise different law codes and legal sources for their evidence of dependency The result are these ten papers that truly enhance our understanding of slavery and other dependency relations in late antique and early medieval societies from c 100 to c 900 CE The Statesman's Year Book,1902 International Journal of Francophone Studies ,1997 Divine Flesh, Embodied Word Anne-Claire Mulder,2006 What has Luce Irigaray s statement that women need a God to do with her thoughts on the relation between body and mind or the sensible and the intelligible Using the theological notion incarnation as a hermeneutical key Anne Claire Mulder brings together and illuminates the interrelations between these different themes in Luce Irigaray s work Seesawing between Luce Irigaray s critique of philosophical discourse and her constructive philosophy Mulder elucidates Irigaray s thoughts on the relations between becoming woman and becoming divine She shows that Luce Irigaray s restaging of the relation between the sensible and the intelligible between flesh and Word is key to her reinterpretation of the relation between woman and God In and through her interpretation of Luce Irigaray s thoughts on the flesh she argues that the relation between flesh and Word must be seen as a dialectical one instead of as a dualistic relation This means that incarnation is no longer seen as a one way process of Word becoming flesh but as a continuing process of flesh becoming word and word becoming flesh For all images and thoughts including those of God are produced by the flesh divine in its creativity inexhaustibility in response to the touch of the other And these images thoughts words in turn become embodied by touching and moving the flesh of the subject SPEAK ,1988 A Short History of Women's Rights from the Days of Augustus to the Present Time Eugene Arthur Hecker,1910 Documentation Sur la Recherche Féministe ,1995 Migrant Women Gina Buijs,1993 Most of the women studied in this volume hoped to retain their original culture and lifestyle at least to some extent but found that the exigencies of being migrants and refugees forced them to examine their preconceptions and to adopt roles both social and economic which they would have rejected at home This remaking of self was often a traumatic experience with serious repercussions on their relationships with their menfolk Cistercian Studies Quarterly ,1992
