journey through the world of film festivals and film criticism from the 1950s to the 1980s Decades Never Start on Time provides a fascinating insight into the flourishing film culture of the era With a preface by David Thomson The McGraw-Hill Encyclopedia of World Biography, 1973 Self-Projection Linda Haverty Rugg, 2014-03-01 In 1957 a decade before Roland Barthes announced the death of the author François Truffaut called for a new era in which films would resemble the person who made them and be even more personal than an autobiographical novel More than five decades on it seems that Barthes has won the argument when it comes to most film critics The cinematic author we are told has been dead for a long time Yet Linda Haverty Rugg contends not only that the art cinema auteur never died but that the films of some of the most important auteurs are intensely if complexly related to the lives and self images of their directors Self Projection explores how nondocumentary narrative art films create alternative forms of collaborative self representation and selfhood The book examines the work of celebrated directors who plant autobiographical traces in their films including Truffaut Bergman Fellini Tarkovsky Herzog Allen Almod var and von Trier It is not simply that these directors and many others like them make autobiographical references or occasionally appear in their films but that they tie their films to their life stories and communicate that link to their audiences Projecting a new kind of selfhood these directors encourage identifications between themselves and their work even as they disavow such connections And because of the collaborative and technological nature of filmmaking the director s self projection involves actors audience and the machines and institution of the cinema as well Lively and accessible Self Projection sheds new light on the films of these iconic directors and on art cinema in general ultimately showing how film can transform not only the autobiographical act but what it means to have a self The Films in My Life François Truffaut, 1985 Hitchcock François Truffaut, 2015-12-04 Iconic groundbreaking interviews of Alfred Hitchcock by film critic François Truffaut providing insight into the cinematic method the history of film and one of the greatest directors of all time In Hitchcock film critic François Truffaut presents fifty hours of interviews with Alfred Hitchcock about the whole of his vast directorial career from his silent movies in Great Britain to his color films in Hollywood The result is a portrait of one of the greatest directors the world has ever known an all round specialist who masterminded everything from the screenplay and the photography to the editing and the soundtrack Hitchcock discusses the inspiration behind his films and the art of creating fear and suspense as well as giving strikingly honest assessments of his achievements and failures his doubts and hopes This peek into the brain of one of cinema s greats is a must read for all film aficionados A Truffaut Notebook Sam Solecki, 2015-10-16 An unconventional and deeply engaging introduction to a major figure in modern film
